1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all proposals, offers, agreements made between Elsevier and any third party (or "the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). They supersede any previous supply terms and conditions. For the purposes of theTC, "eligibility" means a Client applicant who meets the criteria for being eligible to become an authorized representative of Elsevier. Both parties agree that the applicable law in any such dispute or proceeding shall be the laws of the State of Massachusetts, USA. Both parties agree that the applicable law in any such dispute or proceeding shall be the laws of the State of Massachusetts, USA. The Client further agrees that he/she will not accept any payment or other benefit in money or in kind from any person or entity, whether the person or entity is a private client or a public body or a public or private entity, notwithstanding the contrary. The Client shall not do any act or forbearance or in connection with any matter or business transacted by or on behalf of Elsevier. The Client shall not use any proprietary or property rights or trade secrets, data, information that constitutes a breach of this TC by Client. Orders must specify a definite schedule of insertions, issues and sizes of space for a single insertion only. No advertising orders will be accepted for periods longer than one year. Where an order for a series of advertisements is given, whether inserted in the same issue or in different issues, the Client shall pay for the inserted series as a single insertion only. Any advertising order shall be for display of the Advertising material in the Product or Service at a definite time and place, and shall not be for display of any advertising material in general. The Client shall notify Client of any incorrect or inaccurate advertising supplied by the Client. Elsevier shall be entitled to maintain such records as it deems necessary. The Client shall make payments for products or services rendered in accordance with the terms provided in this TC. Payment of the price for products or services shall be made on the date(s) and in the manner specified in the order acknowledgement. In the event of a dispute or a complaint relative to the Products or Services or the terms of this TC, the Client may in the first instance make such complaint to Elsevier's customer service department. It is the Client's responsibility to determine the accuracy or completeness of any data, information or advice contained in this TC or the accuracy or completeness of any data, information or advice contained in any other order, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design, characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for requesting delivery or, as the case may be, modifying the agreed price.
