Midwifery

Overview

The aims of Midwifery are: to enhance the quality of care for childbearing women and their families; to encourage midwives to explore and develop their knowledge, skills and attitudes; to provide an international, interdisciplinary forum for the publication, dissemination and discussion of advances, controversies and current research; to promote continuing education through publication of reviews and updates on all aspects of midwifery; and to cover the clinical, epidemiological, education, managerial and technological areas of Practice.

2. Applicability
These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the "Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (the "products and/or Services") and, along with the relevantElsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC").

3. Execution and modification of the order
Each order for the Products and Services by the Client from Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier (or that Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commencement performance of the Services for the Client).

4. Prices, taxes and currencies

4.6 a) unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, each Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the agent is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use.

5. Payment

5.5.5 unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency stated.

6. Distribution

6.9 The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in those activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of its sales of the Products, exercising full credit control and safely keeping all of its losses resulting from any uncollected amounts. Delay or failure in obtaining such payments will not affect the Client's obligation to make payments to Elsevier under clause 9.

7. Intellectual property

7.5.1 Either Party shall be entitled to remove any Content or Product that is not consistent with Elsevier's standards. In addition, Elsevier shall have the right, at any time, to remove any Content from the Client's server. Content will be removed if requested by Elsevier or if the Client is in breach of any of the obligations under these terms and conditions.

8. Liability and claims

8.4.7.2 Nothing in this Contract shall limit the Client's existing legal or statutory rights which are not expressly excluded hereby.

9. Force majeure

9.1.2 If the alterations requested are unacceptable, unless such changes are due to an event of force majeure. Elsevier can cancel the relevant order.

10. Audit

10.3.3 Client agrees to indemnify Elsevier and to hold Elsevier harmless from any and all claims, actions, suits, proceedings, costs, charges or expenses (including without limitation all legal fees and other expenses) which arise out of or in connection with the Advertisements or Client's use of the Advertisements, including any amount paid by the Client for such Advertisements.
