Journal of Cardiac Failure

Overview

Journal of Cardiac Failure is the official publication of the influential Heart Failure Society of America (HFSA) and Japanese Heart Failure Society (JHFS). The journal’s peer-reviewed original papers and review articles address clinical research, basic human studies, and bench research with potential clinical applications to heart failure-pathogenesis, etiology, epidemiology, pathophysiological mechanisms, assessment, prevention, and treatment. Journal of Cardiac Failure, as the voice of the specialty, also publishes guidelines issued by the Heart Failure Society of America that will help further define the practice of cardiovascular medicine and that readers will use repeatedly.

1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to offers, proposals, ordinances and agreements made by and between any party or its third party ("the Client") relating to the products and/or Services ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgment, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). They supersede any previous supply terms and conditions. For the purposes of the TC, "Products" and/or "Services" shall mean all articles of any nature delivered, made or performed by Elsevier as set out on the Elsevier order acknowledgment, shall be made available for the Client's use and/or the Client's customers to use and/or the Client to incorporate in its final product or service. The Client and the services and products as agreed by both parties in the relevant contract, including such things as digital services, design, engineering, code and/or additional, fees, printer, price and the like. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising material by Elsevier or its descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier's catalogues or brochures are issued or published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate idea of the services and Products described therein. They will form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for reworking delivery or, as the case may be, modifying the agreed price.

2. Offer and acceptance/ Description

Any modifications to the nature or description of the Products or services described, in schedule or in the order acknowledgment, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier's discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier reserves additional space for future insertions, the Client will be charged for any space taken up by the Client.

3. General

The Client shall be responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in relation to the sale of the Products or Services, and in relation to its dealings with any employee or official of a government agency or any other government owned, operated or controlled entity (including, without limitation, state run universities, hospitals and libraries), or with any commercial contact or Government Official for the purpose or intent to induce such payment, for personal gain or for that of Elsevier or Elsevier's affiliates (any such act, a "Prohibited Payment"). A Prohibited Payment must be immediately and fully reported to Elsevier in writing. The Client shall refrain from making any Prohibited Payment and shall pay, offer, give, promise or authorize the payment, directly or indirectly, of any Prohibited Payment. The Client and its officers, directors, employees or agents shall pay, offer, give, promise or authorize the payment, directly or indirectly, of any Prohibited Payment.

4. Privacy, taxes and customs

Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing the price(s) for the Products and Services shall be Elsevier's current price list (whether on paper or online). All such prices shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, transport and insurance charges unless otherwise agreed, and shall be exclusive of any taxes, import duties or other levies imposed on the sale or export of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as appropriate. Where applicable, Client shall provide Elsevier with VAT registration number or registration certificate.

5. Payment

Payment does not include a payment of reasonable and bona fide expenditures, such as travel or lodging expenses, which are necessary and directly related to the preparation and performance of the work under the TC. Payments shall be made in accordance with the payment terms of the TC. No invoices will be presented to the Client for payment twice for any item.

6. Data Protection

The Client and its agents, licensees, employees, and/or contractors shall not own, use, or disclose Elsevier's confidential information; use Elsevier's confidential information for personal gain or for that of Elsevier or Elsevier's affiliates; transfer Elsevier's confidential information to any third parties; or transfer Elsevier's confidential information to any third parties.

7. Records

The Client shall allow Publisher's authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client's premises (or such other premises as specified by Elsevier) and within the relevant deadline set by Elsevier (the "Closing Date"). Where access is denied or refusal is made, at Elsevier's discretion, Elsevier may either: (a) execute the work or performance of the Services; or (b) terminate the TC and invoice the Client for the work performed or the work or performance of the Services which could and should have been completed by the Client. Payment shall be made within thirty (30) days of the invoice date. The Client shall pay all reasonable expenses, costs and charges incurred by Publisher for any breaches of the Client's obligations under the TC.

8. Liability and claims

In the event of supply and delivery of any service provided by Elsevier, Elsevier shall be liable only in circumstances where the cause of the loss or damage is attributable to Elsevier's negligence or default. If the Client discovers any defect in the work, such defect shall be reported to Elsevier within fourteen (14) days from the date of delivery or, if the work is to be performed by Elsevier, the Client shall be responsible for checking the work and accepting it if no defects are found. The Client shall not be liable for any loss or liability, direct or indirect, arising out of the breach of any of Client's representations or warranties hereunder.

9. Confidentiality

The Client shall not disclose any information to any third party. The Client shall not disclose any information to any third party. The Client shall not disclose any information to any third party. The Client shall not disclose any information to any third party.

10. Audit

This Agreement and all related documents shall be subject to audit by Elsevier. The Client shall allow Publisher's authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client's premises (or such other premises as specified by Elsevier) and within the relevant deadline set by Elsevier (the "Closing Date"). Where access is denied or refusal is made, at Elsevier's discretion, Elsevier may either: (a) execute the work or performance of the Services; or (b) terminate the TC and invoice the Client for the work performed or the work or performance of the Services which could and should have been completed by the Client. Payment shall be made within thirty (30) days of the invoice date. The Client shall pay all reasonable expenses, costs and charges incurred by Publisher for any breaches of the Client's obligations under the TC.

11. General

This Agreement and all related documents shall be subject to audit by Elsevier. The Client shall allow Publisher's authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client's premises (or such other premises as specified by Elsevier) and within the relevant deadline set by Elsevier (the "Closing Date"). Where access is denied or refusal is made, at Elsevier's discretion, Elsevier may either: (a) execute the work or performance of the Services; or (b) terminate the TC and invoice the Client for the work performed or the work or performance of the Services which could and should have been completed by the Client. Payment shall be made within thirty (30) days of the invoice date. The Client shall pay all reasonable expenses, costs and charges incurred by Publisher for any breaches of the Client's obligations under the TC.

12. Miscellaneous

Any extensions to the Client's agreement to provide any free of charge Services or the execution or performance of a contract provided that such payments are permissible under the Applicable monies or anything of value to any commercial contact or Government Official for the purpose or intent to induce such payment, for personal gain or for that of Elsevier or Elsevier's affiliates (any such act, a "Prohibited Payment"). A Prohibited Payment must be immediately and fully reported to Elsevier in writing. The Client shall refrain from making any Prohibited Payment and shall pay, offer, give, promise or authorize the payment, directly or indirectly, of any Prohibited Payment. The Client and its officers, directors, employees or agents shall pay, offer, give, promise or authorize the payment, directly or indirectly, of any Prohibited Payment.

13. Consumer

The Client shall not disclose any information to any third party. The Client shall not disclose any information to any third party. The Client shall not disclose any information to any third party. The Client shall not disclose any information to any third party.
