1. Applicability
These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the “Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (the “products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the “TC”). The TC supersedes any previous terms and conditions. For the purposes of the TC, Elsevier shall mean the company within the Elsevier group that is providing the products or Services set out on the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, unless expressly agreed otherwise in writing.

2. Offer and acceptance/ Description
Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or (if earlier) Elsevier delivers the products or invites the Client to commence performance of the Services for each Client product or process.

3. Prices, taxes and currencies
Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, Elsevier represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber or principal, or, if it is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use.

4. Intellectual property
Client acknowledges that the imposition of liability will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier upon termination of this representation and warranty. Neither Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to deliver all recipients of all Products and Services from Elsevier, including all actual products that have not previously been properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with the provisions of the Products and Services agreed by both the parties in the relevant order, including such things as format, printing, processing, design and size and kind of address, files and weights. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising issued by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier’s catalogues or brochures or issued as published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described in them. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for rejection of the Products and Services, as the case may be, unless they impair the usage.

5. Payment
Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency designated in the TC. Time for payment shall be of the essence. Elsevier may set any additional limits for any Client account and shall be entitled to refuse to supply any Client who has exceeded its current credit limit. Legal and beneficial title to all Products supplied by Elsevier to the Client shall remain with Elsevier until Elsevier has received in full the amounts due from the Client for all Products delivered to that Client. All sums due to Elsevier shall attract an interest at the rate of 1% per annum, subject to any minimum charge, which shall be added to the invoice from the date the invoice is due up to the date of receipt of payment by Elsevier.

6. Losses and damages
The Client shall not be liable for any loss or damage which may be caused by any third party or their employees as a result of or in connection with any such dispute unless the Client is found by the relevant court to be at fault or liable in relation to any such dispute. Elsevier shall not be liable to the Client for any such loss or damage.

7. Intellectual property
Copyright and other intellectual property rights to all Elsevier proposals, publications and other Products and/or Services shall remain with Elsevier unless agreed otherwise in writing. The Client agrees that the Client shall not transfer, assign or license the products and/or Services of Elsevier (“the Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, to any third party. Unless expressly agreed otherwise, Client agrees to use such Products and/or Services for lawful purposes only.

8. Litigation and claims
The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services or other Products and/or Services of Elsevier. The parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the Courts of that country in which the Elsevier company has its principal place of business and each party irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of such country.
