12. Compliance with laws

1. Applicability

The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that same corporate domicile. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the written consent of Elsevier. Any such assignment shall be subject to the same terms and conditions which shall apply to the TC and any assignment terms which shall be in writing. The Client shall notify Elsevier immediately of any such assignment. The Client shall not be considered to have been in breach of the TC if the Client assigns the TC in writing and signed by an authorized signatory of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation. Where Products are sold to the Client that contain third party software or services such a sale may be subject to additional license terms.

2. Offer and acceptance/ Description

The Client shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No offer placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgment of order is issued by Elsevier or (if earlier) Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commences performance of the Services for the Client. For all Client orders Elsevier are accepted subject to availability of the ordered Products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber or principal, if it is agent permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use. Personal Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irrevocable harm to Elsevier. Upon any violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediately injunctive relief requiring Client to disclose all recipients of the Products and Services from Elsevier, including all actual recipients that have not previously been properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with any or all requests of the Client, including such things as formatting, printing, technical design, size and kind of address file, and the like. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising issued by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier's catalogues or brochures are issued as of the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described therein. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for rejecting the Products, as the case may be, nor is there any refund.

3. Price, taxes and currency

Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, prices shall be in effect for such Products and Services as set forth in Elsevier's current price list (whether print or online). All such prices shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, transit and transport, insurance charges unless otherwise agreed in writing, and shall be exclusive of all taxes, import duties or other taxes imposed on the sale or import of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as applicable. Where applicable, Client shall provide to Elsevier Client's VAT registration number or other evidence of tax exemption to Elsevier at the time of placing its order. If, under the laws of the territory in which Client is selling the Products, the Client is required to withhold any tax on the amount payable under the TC, the Client shall deduct such tax at source and add the amount actually netted to Elsevier. If, under the laws of the Client's country, any tax, duty or other charge is increased or full or in effect, such increase shall be charged to the Client.

4. Payment

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be made within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency indicated. Time for payment shall be of the essence. Elsevier may set any, and shall set any, credit limits and may, in its discretion, accept no further orders from the Client or invoices for Products or Services if, in the opinion of Elsevier, the Credit Limit has been exceeded. Any payment received by Elsevier after the 5th of the month following the due date of the invoice will be charged interest at the rate of 2% per annum from the date of the invoice. If any payment is not received on or before the due date of the invoice, a 10% surcharge will be charged on the amount due.

5. Cancellations

If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, picketing, war, or other causes of force majeure, the Products, the Services, or any supplies or equipment necessary for the manufacture of such Products or provision of such Services cannot be obtained by Elsevier from any source or for any reason whatsoever, or if any of the terms or conditions of the TC, or any other material terms or conditions of any agreement between the Client and Elsevier, are not and cannot be fulfilled by reason of force majeure, the performance of the TC, or any part of it, shall be suspended or cancelled by Elsevier and, if cancelled, the Client shall not be liable for any damage or other loss caused to the Client or for any other reason. If the performance of the TC is suspended or cancelled, the Client shall be entitled to a proportionate adjustment of the entire price payable by the Client. If the performance of the TC is not suspended or cancelled, the Client shall be entitled to a proportionate adjustment of the price for the portion of the TC not performed.

6. Distribution

The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in those activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of its sales of the Products, exercising full credit control and solely bearing all of its losses arising from any uncollected amounts. Delays or failures in obtaining such payments shall not give the Client the right to make adjustments to payments to Elsevier under the TC, or to affect the obligation of the Client to make payments to Elsevier under the TC.

7. Intellectual property

Copyright and other intellectual property rights in the Products, Elsevier proposals, publications or other Products or Services shall remain with Elsevier unless otherwise agreed in writing. The Client is granted the right to use the Product solely for the purpose for which it was acquired. The Client shall not transfer, assign, distribute or sublicense the Products without the prior written permission of Elsevier. The Client shall not use the Products or the Product for any purpose other than stated in the TC.

8. Liability and claims

To THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, CLIENT waives, releases and holds Elsevier, and any affiliate, joint venturer, or successor of Elsevier, harmless from any, and all, liability, claims, actions, suits, complaints, judgments, damages, expenses, costs (including reasonable legal fees and expenses), or other losses arising out of or related to CLIENT'S use of the Products or the Services, including, but not limited to, claims or actions based on trademark, copyright, patent, trade secret, unfair competition, violation of any state or federal law, unfair or deceptive trade practices, breach of warranty, lost profits, lost savings, loss of use, loss of data, or any other similar losses, damages, or costs, even if Elsevier was informed of the possibility of these damages, and even if the remedies provided hereunder are found to have failed of their essential purpose.

9. Force majeure

If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, picketing, war, or other causes of force majeure, the Products, the Services, or any supplies or equipment necessary for the manufacture of such Products or provision of such Services cannot be obtained by Elsevier from any source or for any reason whatsoever, or if any of the terms or conditions of the TC, or any other material terms or conditions of any agreement between the Client and Elsevier, are not and cannot be fulfilled by reason of force majeure, the performance of the TC, or any part of it, shall be suspended or cancelled by Elsevier and, if cancelled, the Client shall not be liable for any damage or other loss caused to the Client or for any other reason. If the performance of the TC is suspended or cancelled, the Client shall be entitled to a proportionate adjustment of the entire price payable by the Client. If the performance of the TC is not suspended or cancelled, the Client shall be entitled to a proportionate adjustment of the price for the portion of the TC not performed.

10. Audit

The Client shall allow Elsevier's authorized representatives at reasonable times and on reasonable prior notice to access the Client's premises to verify Client's compliance with the TC. The Client shall provide Elsevier with reasonable assistance and cooperation to verify Client's compliance with the TC. In the event Elsevier determines that Client is not in compliance with the TC, the Client shall promptly cure such non-compliance at its own expense. The Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. Upon any violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediately injunctive relief requiring Client to disclose all recipients of the Products and Services from Elsevier, including all actual recipients that have not previously been properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with any or all requests of the Client, including such things as formatting, printing, technical design, size and kind of address file, and the like. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising issued by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier's catalogues or brochures are issued as of the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described therein. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for rejecting the Products, as the case may be, nor is there any refund.

11. General

The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that same corporate domicile. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the written consent of Elsevier. Any such assignment shall be subject to the same terms and conditions which shall apply to the TC and any assignment terms which shall be in writing. The Client shall notify Elsevier immediately of any such assignment. The Client shall not be considered to have been in breach of the TC if the Client assigns the TC in writing and signed by an authorized signatory of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation. Where Products are sold to the Client that contain third party software or services such a sale may be subject to additional license terms.
