Clinical Simulation in Nursing

Overview

Clinical Simulation in Nursing (CSN) is an international, peer-reviewed journal published online monthly. CSN is the official journal of the International Nursing Association for Clinical Simulation & Learning (INACSL) and reflects the mission of INACSL to advance the science of healthcare simulation.

The journal accepts the following types of manuscripts:

— Research articles and literature reviews (e.g. systematic, scoping, umbrella, integrative, etc.) about simulation

— Innovative teaching/learning strategies using simulation

— Articles updating guidelines, regulations, and legislative policies that impact simulation

— Leadership for simulation

— Simulation operations

— Clinical and academic uses of simulation

Contact your sales representative for all digital advertising rates and opportunities.
The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of that domicile or any other court or tribunal that Elsevier is entitled to bring action in, and to enter into this TC voluntarily.

3. Execution and modification of the order

If the Client is unable to perform in whole or in part or if the Client amends an advertisement in any material way, unless such changes are due to an event of force majeure, Elsevier shall have the right to terminate this TC and refund the Client any amount overpaid or not invoiced.

4. Intellectual property

Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. Upon any breach of this warranty by the Client, Elsevier shall have the right to terminate this TC immediately, to seek injunctive relief against the Client, and to recover all damages, including, but not limited to, actual or consequential damages, which Client may suffer as a result of such breach.

6. Liability and claims

The AGC expects a high level of accuracy in the provision of the Services and Products. The Client acknowledges that any errors, omissions or inaccuracies in the Services or Products provided by Elsevier may result in significant consequences for the Client. The Client agrees to review all Services and Products upon delivery and to notify Elsevier of any discrepancies or errors within the agreed timeframe. Elsevier shall have the right to correct any errors, omissions or inaccuracies in the Services or Products at its own discretion and expense. The Client shall be responsible for ensuring that the Services and Products meet the Client’s requirements and that they are used for the intended purpose.

9. Cancellation & Returns

The Client shall not sell, assign, transfer or sublicense without the prior written consent of Elsevier. The rights granted by Elsevier are non-exclusive and for the purpose expressly agreed upon. Any other use shall require the prior written permission of Elsevier. The Client shall not acquire any rights, titles or interests in the Services or Products or any part thereof by virtue of this TC. The Client shall not use or disclose the Services or Products or any part thereof in any manner that violates the intellectual property rights of Elsevier or any third party. The Client shall not modify, adapt, translate, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, or dissemble the Services or Products or any part thereof in any manner without the prior written consent of Elsevier.

10. Advertising & Reprints

The Client shall be solely responsible for ensuring proposed advertising copy is received at Elsevier in electronic form (or such other form as specified by Elsevier) and within the relevant deadline set by Elsevier (the "Closing Date"). Where copy is received late or not at all, Elsevier shall have the right to refuse to publish such copy or to use any other copy that is available. The Client acknowledges that the Client is responsible for ensuring that all advertising copy is received at Elsevier in a timely manner and that Elsevier shall have the right to refuse to publish any advertising copy that is received late or not at all.

12. Compliance with laws

The Client shall indemnify and hold Elsevier harmless from and against any claims, damages, or expenses arising out of or in connection with any violation of any law, rule, or regulation or industry code or practice to which Elsevier is subject and that is a result of any act or omission of the Client, including, without limitation, any claim relating to false advertising, unfair competition, defamation, invasion of privacy or rights of celebrity, violation of any patent, trademark, copyright, or trade secret, or any other proprietary right or property right, false advertising, unfair competition, defamation, invasion of privacy or rights of celebrity, violation of any anti-discrimination law or regulation, or any other right of any person or entity. (2) Advertising Content complies with any applicable laws, rules, industry codes, regulations and government policies.

1. Applicability

The Client acknowledges that a high price will be payable for the Products or Services but for such limitations.

5. Payment

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payment shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency invoiced. Time for payment shall be of the essence. Elsevier may set any payment limits for any Client account and shall be entitled to refuse to supply any Client who has exceeded its current credit limit. Legal and beneficial title in any tangible Products supplied by Elsevier to the Client shall remain with Elsevier until Elsevier has received in full (net) or cleared funds all sums due to it in respect of the Products and all other sums which are or which become due to Elsevier from the Client on account of any order.

13. Cancellations & Returns

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, orders for advertisements must be cancelled in writing prior to the relevant ad insertion date. No new external costs will be incurred or committed/contracted from the date of receipt of written notice of cancellation by Elsevier. Orders for reprints of material that has not been published shall be entitled to reject any order for reprints of material that has not been published. If the alterations requested are unacceptable, unless such changes are due to an event of force majeure. Elsevier can refuse to make any other alteration, the Client will have the right to cancel the order for that advertisement, and the Client will have the right to cancel the order for that advertisement, and the Client will be reimbursed for any amounts paid to Elsevier.

2. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the “Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (the “products and/or services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the “TC”). The Client shall not be bound by any offer previously made by Elsevier unless the offer is in writing and signed by an authorized signatory of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s liability for fraudulent misrepresentation. Where Products are sold to the Client that contain third party software or such a sale may be subject to additional licence terms.

7. Intellectual property

The Client acknowledges that it will pay for the cost of providing the Services and Products and any applicable taxes or duties. The Client shall pay for all Products and Services in advance of delivery/performance. The Client shall pay all amounts invoiced or otherwise due to Elsevier in full without set-off, counterclaim, deduction or retention. The Client shall not have the right to seek any deduction from or to withhold payment in respect of the price payable to Elsevier under this TC unless the Client has a valid court order requiring an amount equal to such deduction to be paid by Elsevier to the Client. The Client agrees to pay all sums due to Elsevier, including without limitation all bank charges and foreign exchange charges. The Client shall promptly furnish Elsevier with the official receipt of payment in full, interest at the rate of 1% may be charged to the Client on a monthly basis for any sums outstanding, together with any collection fees incurred by Elsevier. If the Client wishes to dispute any invoice or (part) thereof, the Client shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, but not later than the due date of such invoice, send full details of such dispute to Elsevier in writing.

14. General

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, if the Client considers that the Services or Products do not meet the Client’s requirements, the Client shall have the right to cancel the order for that advertisement, and the Client shall be entitled to receive a refund of any amounts paid to Elsevier for that advertisement, and the Client shall be entitled to receive a refund of any amounts paid to Elsevier for that advertisement, and the Client shall be entitled to receive a refund of any amounts paid to Elsevier for that advertisement.

1. Applicability

The Client acknowledges that the price that Elsevier has quoted is exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, insurance, and transportation charges incurred in connection with the delivery of the Services or Products.
