Contact your sales representative for all digital advertising rates and opportunities.
1. Applicability. These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the "Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC").

2. Cancellations & Returns. The cancellation or return of any products and/or services shall be as set out in Elsevier’s current price list (whether print or online). All such prices shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, insurance, transport and insurance charges unless otherwise agreed in writing, and shall also be exclusive of any taxes, import duties or other levies imposed on the sale or import of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as applicable.

3. Execution and modification of the order. The Client shall provide to Elsevier a clear and unambiguous advertisement order. Upon receipt of this order, Elsevier shall place the order with its printers or other third parties with whom it normally deals in connection with the order. The Client shall be entitled to make such a cancellation or alteration of the order as Elsevier may consider necessary. The Client shall be liable for the additional cost of any such cancellation or alteration, or for any loss or damage sustained by Elsevier in connection therewith.

4. Price, terms and currencies. The order shall be subject to the then current Rate Card, which is deemed to be accepted when the Client receives the invoice from Elsevier. Price lists that have been agreed shall remain in effect for a period of six months unless either party gives written notice of its intention to alter the terms and conditions thereof, in which case the notice shall be given at least two months prior to the expiration of such six months period.

5. Payment. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date to the Client’s invoice. Time for payment shall be of the essence. Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on any amount overdue at the rate of 6% per annum or such other rate as Elsevier shall determine from time to time.

6. Distribution. The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarise the Products or any other products or services of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in those activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party.

7. Intellectual property. Copyright and other intellectual property rights to all Elsevier proposals, publications and or Services or or Services shall remain with Elsevier unless agreed otherwise in writing. The rights granted by Elsevier are restricted to use solely by the Client and may not be assigned, transferred or sublicensed without the prior written permission of Elsevier. The Client is solely responsible for copying its own work with no effort to perform except as specifically agreed to in the TC.

8. Liability and claims. The Client shall be responsible for ensuring that the Client holds the highest possible level of insurance, both property and liability, in respect of the Client’s use of the Products or Services. The Client shall indemnify Elsevier against any and all claims, demands, actions, damages, costs or expenses incurred by Elsevier as a result of the Client’s use of the Products or Services.

9. Force majeure. Elsevier shall have no liability for any delay or failure to perform any of its obligations hereunder, whether or not such delay or failure is caused by any cause beyond the control of Elsevier, including any act of God, acts of terrorism or war.

10. Advertising & Reprints. The Client represents and warrants that (i) Client holds the necessary licenses, if any, required by law to permit the advertising copy, if any, to be advertised and to receive reprints in the manner specified in the order; (ii) Client has no knowledge of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party; (iii) Client has properly identified all persons, firms, or companies that are authorized to order the advertised products and services; and (iv) Client has received all necessary consents and approvals from all persons, firms, or companies that are authorized to order the advertised products and services.

11. Audit. The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the courts of that same corporate domicile. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written permission of Elsevier. If any provision of the TC is found by any court, tribunal or other competent authority to be wholly or partly illegal, invalid, void, voidable, unenforceable or unreasonably be deemed severable and the remaining provisions of the TC shall not be affected thereby.

12. General. These terms and conditions shall apply to all matters arising out of the sale of the Products or Services and the Client is hereby deemed to have waived and renounced all other rights and remedies which it may or might have had on account of any breach of any of the terms hereof or of any other representation or warranty made by Elsevier to the Client, save and except those rights and remedies which are hereby expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorised signatory of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude Elsevier’s liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.

13. Cancellations & Returns. The Client shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or (if earlier) Elsevier delivers the products or issues the invoice to the Client or performs some performance of the Services for the Client. For all products and services, any order accepted by Elsevier is subject to availability and Elsevier reserves the right to cancel the order or to substitute items of equal or greater value if such items are not available at the time of order.

14. General. The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the courts of that same corporate domicile. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written permission of Elsevier. If any provision of the TC is found by any court, tribunal or other competent authority to be wholly or partly illegal, invalid, void, voidable, unenforceable or unreasonably be deemed severable and the remaining provisions of the TC shall not be affected thereby.
