2. Applicability These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the "Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). They supersede any previous supply terms and conditions. For the purposes of the TC, Elsevier shall mean the company within the Elsevier group that is providing the Products or Services as set out on the corresponding Rate Card. "Elsevier", "Elsevier group", "Elsevier company", "Elsevier group company", "Elsevier company" shall mean Elsevier, its agents, representatives and subcontractors and, unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, includes any authorized contractor or agent of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation. Where Products or Services are sold to the Client that contain third party software or services such a sale may be subject to additional licence terms.

3. Offer and acceptance/ Description The Client shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No offer placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or (if earlier) Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commences performance of the Services for the Client. For all Client orders are accepted subject to availability of the ordered Products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, the Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the Client is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified individual subscriber for personal use. Personal subscribers agree that subscription to this service and subscription to any other Elsevier subscription service shall be personal and non-transferable and no such subscription shall be a sale of Elsevier on the Client's own behalf and the Client shall deal as principal when making such a sale. Elsevier may set and vary credit limits for any Client account and shall be entitled to refuse to supply any Client who has exceeded its current credit limit. Legal and legitimate title in any tangible Products supplied by Elsevier to the Client shall remain with Elsevier until the Client has paid for all amounts due to Elsevier from the Client on account of the Products and all other sums which are or which become due to Elsevier from the Client on account of the Products. The Client may request the Client needs before provision is made to it or it is provided that any such sale will be affected in the ordinary course of the Client's business at full market value and any such sale shall be a sale of Elsevier on the Client's own behalf and the Client shall deal as principal when making such a sale. Elsevier shall be entitled to recover payment for the copies of the Product notwithstanding that ownership of any of the copies of the Product has not passed from Elsevier. For the avoidance of doubt no intellectual property rights in any Products shall transfer to the Client. Products shall be at the Client's risk as from delivery. The Client shall make all payments due under the TC without any deduction whether by way of set-off, discount, disallowance, adjustment or otherwise unless the Client has a valid court order requiring an amount equal to such deduction to be paid to the Client. From the due date of the invoice to the date of payment in full, interest at the rate of 5% (or such other interest rate as Elsevier may elect) on any disputed amount shall accrue on any disputed amount and shall be payable to Elsevier on demand. Elsevier and its agents and contractors shall be entitled to keep and use any money received from the Client on account of the Products and Services and to use such money during the currency of the JsonResponse of the Client for the purposes of this TC. The Client acknowledges that the Client's credit rating, credit score, and payment history will be kept on a database and may be used by Elsevier in connection with the Products and Services. Elsevier will not be liable for the timely appearance or delivery of the Products and Services or for any delays or failures in such delivery if any legal or equitable defense or set-off exists unless such changes are due to an event of force majeure. Elsevier can reject an order for reprints of material that has not been published. If the Client cancels an order either fully or partially, a cancellation fee may be charged. All cancellations must be made in writing. This fee will be calculated to cover any external or internal costs which have been incurred or committed up to and including the date of cancellation. Orders for cancellations must be made in writing prior to the relevant date at least one day before the agreed delivery date. Orders for cancellations are made after such date, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge the full cost of the advertisement. Any returns of the products shall be subject to the relevant Elsevier company's return policy applicable to the products at the time of return. Details of such policies will be published on Elsevier's website at the time of ordering. Rates, terms and conditions are subject to change without notice by Elsevier, as the case may be, and are not limited to the prices listed.

3. Price, terms and currency Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing the prices for the Products and Services shall be set out in Elsevier's current price list (whether print or online). All such prices shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, insurance, transport and import duties or taxes, unless otherwise stated in writing, and shall also be exclusive of any taxes, import duties or other duties imposed on the sale or import of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as applicable. Where applicable, Elsevier shall provide to the Client's VAT registration number or other evidence of tax exemption to Elsevier at the time of placing its order. If, under the laws of the territory in which Client is selling the Products, the Client is required to withhold any tax on the purchase of the Products or Services, then the purchase price shall be reduced accordingly. The Client shall make all payments due under the TC without any deduction whether by way of set-off, discount, disallowance, adjustment or otherwise unless the Client has a valid court order requiring an amount equal to such deduction to be paid to the Client. From the due date of the invoice to the date of payment in full, interest at the rate of 5% (or such other interest rate as Elsevier may elect) on any disputed amount shall accrue on any disputed amount and shall be payable to Elsevier on demand. Elsevier and its agents and contractors shall be entitled to keep and use any money received from the Client on account of the Products and Services and to use such money during the currency of the TC. The Client acknowledges that the Client's credit rating, credit score, and payment history will be kept on a database and may be used by Elsevier in connection with the Products and Services. Elsevier will not be liable for the timely appearance or delivery of the Products and Services or for any delays or failures in such delivery if any legal or equitable defense or set-off exists unless such changes are due to an event of force majeure. Elsevier can reject an order for reprints of material that has not been published. If the Client cancels an order either fully or partially, a cancellation fee may be charged.
