2. Applicability
Any modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget, or schedule, as set out in the original agreement, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional Services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall act in the name of, and at the cost of, and at the risk of the Client. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/performance of the Products and Services are intended to be an estimate and time for delivery/performance shall not be made of the essence by notice. If no dates are so specified, delivery/performance will be within a reasonable time.

3. Execution and modification of the order
Any modifications to the purchased products and Services for the Client shall be set out in Elsevier’s current price list (whether print or online). All such prices shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, insurance, shipping, customs duties, and any other taxes or charges. All prices are exclusive of value-added tax (VAT) and any other similar tax, unless otherwise stated. If the Client is not taxable for VAT purposes and the legislation requires Elsevier to charge VAT on its turnover, the Client will be notified of the amount of VAT in the invoice and the Client shall make such payment in addition to the price of the goods. Any increase in VAT rates will result in an increase in the invoice amount. Where the Client is required to make payment of taxes to the Client, Elsevier will not be responsible for any foreign-exchange-related payments in the currency in which the Client makes the payment.

4. Prices, taxes and currencies
Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, the Client represents and warrants that it is paying Purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services for the Client and not for its own account. Invoices or other documents shall be issued in the currency agreed to by the Client and Elsevier. If the Client is required to make payment of taxes to the Client, Elsevier will not be responsible for any foreign-exchange-related payments in the currency in which the Client makes the payment.

5. Payment
Payment or other benefit in money or in kind from any person as an inducement or reward for any act or forbearance or in connection with any matter or business transacted by or on behalf of Elsevier. Client shall not engage in any activity which is intended to influence the Client’s employees and agents shall engage only in legitimate business and ethical practices in commercial operations and in interactions with Government Officials. Neither the Client nor any of its officers, directors, employees or agents shall, or seek to have, any form of business relationship, directly or indirectly, with any person, firm or company. If any provision of the TC is found by any court, tribunal or legal authority to be void or unenforceable, then that provision shall be amended, to the extent permitted by law, to make it enforceable, in such a manner as to most nearly effect the intent of the parties.

6. Liability and claims
If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, riots, or other cause of force beyond its control, party is unable to perform in whole or in part its obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of its obligation to perform, and such inability to perform shall not make such party liable to any other party. The party subject to an event of force majeure shall promptly notify the official with the authority to make decisions in its behalf about the event of force majeure.

7. Intellectual property
The Client shall allow Publisher’s authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client’s premises (or to have access to other relevant premises) for the purpose of inspecting Client’s facilities, books and records to determine if Client is in compliance with the requirements of this Agreement. Client shall do all acts and things necessary to assist Publisher in the exercise of such rights. Client shall not assign the exclusive license to any person, firm or company. If any provision of the TC is found by any court, tribunal or legal authority to be void or unenforceable, then that provision shall be amended, to the extent permitted by law, to make it enforceable, in such a manner as to most nearly effect the intent of the parties.

8. Offer and acceptance/ Description
Offer proposals and quotations made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (“the Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (“the Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (“the Contract”). The Client’s offer guidance and general information, and the TC and any amendments thereto (the “Documents” or “the Agreement”) are the whole agreement between the parties and supersede any previous communications or representations. The documents shall be signed by the authorized agents of Elsevier and the Client. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s liability for fraudulent misrepresentation. Where products are sold to the Client that contain third party software or similar such a sale may be subject to additional license terms.

9. Offer and acceptance/ Description
Acceptance of the order or invitation to tender shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgment of order is issued by Elsevier (or its authorized representative). Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commenced performance of the Services for the Client. All products are accepted subject to availability of the ordered products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, the Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and sale and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services for the Client and not for its own account. Invoices or other documents shall be issued in the currency agreed to by the Client and Elsevier. If the Client is required to make payment of taxes to the Client, Elsevier will not be responsible for any foreign-exchange-related payments in the currency in which the Client makes the payment.

10. Compliance with laws
Client shall not engage in any activity which is intended to influence the Client’s employees and agents shall engage only in legitimate business and ethical practices in commercial operations and in interactions with Government Officials. Neither the Client nor any of its officers, directors, employees or agents shall, or seek to have, any form of business relationship, directly or indirectly, with any person, firm or company. If any provision of the TC is found by any court, tribunal or legal authority to be void or unenforceable, then that provision shall be amended, to the extent permitted by law, to make it enforceable, in such a manner as to most nearly effect the intent of the parties.
