1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgment, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). They supersede any previous supply terms and conditions. For the purposes of the TC, Elsevier shall mean the company within the Elsevier group that is providing the Products or Services as set out on the order acknowledgement, or where the context requires, the relevant products or services as set out in the Supplementary Terms and Conditions ("the T&Cs") and any relevant provisions of Elsevier’s Rate Card ("the Rate Card").

2. Offer and acceptance/ Description

No offer made by Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer to the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgment of order is issued by Elsevier or (if earlier) Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commences performance of the Services for the Client. All product orders are accepted subject to availability of the ordered Products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, the Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If the Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the Client is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use. Personal Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. Upon this violation of any representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to deliver all recipients of the Products and Services from Elsevier, including all actual recipients that have not previously been properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with the provisions of the TC and agree by both parties, including including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for repudiation of the contract, as the case may be, unless the Client demands rescission.

3. Prices, taxes and currencies

Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, prices will be those set out in Elsevier’s current price list (whether print or online). All such prices shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, insurance, duty, value added tax, and any other taxes, stamp duties, imposts charges and other taxes or duties levied or imposed by any government or other authority on the supply, production or delivery of Products or Services. If the alterations requested are unacceptable, unless such changes are due to an event of force majeure. Elsevier can cancel the order or performance of the Services for the Client. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/performance of the Products and Services are intended to be an estimate and time for delivery/performance shall not be made of the essence by the notice. If no date is specified, performance will be at the earliest convenience of Elsevier.

4. Payment

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency stated. Time for payment shall be of the essence. Elsevier shall at its own option and without prejudice to any other rights and remedies available to it, charge interest on overdue amounts at 2% per annum from the due date of such amount up to the date paid in full, interest being calculated on a daily basis. The Client shall pay all sums due under the TC in full and in accordance with the terms and conditions stipulated in the TC.

5. Intellectual property

If the Client cancels an order either fully or partially, a cancellation fee may be charged. All cancellations must be received in writing by Elsevier. This fee will be calculated to cover any external or internal costs which have been incurred or committed up to and including all of the above. Orders in excess of the quoted volume, Elsevier shall return to the Client any amount overpaid by the Client. Orders use space under the same order. No advertising orders will be accepted for periods longer than one year. Where an order is placed for a period longer than one year, Elsevier shall be entitled to re-quote the price/rates for the Products and Services and, if the Client does not order the quoted volume, Elsevier shall be entitled to re-quote the price/rates for the Products and Services.

6. Liability and claims

The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products or services of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in those activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of its sales of the Products, exercising full control and ensuring all of its losses from any uncollected amounts. Delay or failure in obtaining such payments shall not affect Elsevier’s obligation to make payments to clients under the TC.

7. Offer and acceptance/ Description

The Client shall allow Publisher’s authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client’s premises (or to those of any other relevant premises) for the purpose of inspecting Client’s facilities, books and records to verify the accuracy of any information recorded by Elsevier. The Client shall not engage in or permit others to engage in any activities designed to imprison Elsevier’s authorized representatives, which activities shall include, but not be limited to, the Client (or others acting on the Client’s behalf) scamming, stealing, or otherwise inadequately providing access to the Client’s facilities, books, and records. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/performance of the Products and Services are intended to be an estimate and time for delivery/performance shall not be made of the essence by the notice. If no date is specified, performance will be at the earliest convenience of Elsevier.

8. Limitation of liability

Elsevier’s liability for any other loss imputable to it shall in any event be limited to the invoice value of the part of the TC to which the liability arises. To the maximum extent permitted by relevant laws Elsevier expressly disclaims all liability for any implied warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose. Nothing in this contract shall limit the Client’s existing legal or statutory rights where its acting as a consumer. The Client agrees that the United Nations Contracts for the International Sale of Goods shall not apply to this TC or the interpretation or enforcement thereof. The Client has entered into this TC in the knowledge that the liability of Elsevier is limited in accordance with these terms and conditions and the charges have been agreed accordingly. The Client acknowledges that a higher price would be payable for the Products or Services but for such limitations.

9. Force majeure

If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, riots, inability to obtain labor materials, fire or any other act of the elements, accidents, power or telecommunications failure, customs delays, governmental restrictions or appropriation or any other cause beyond the control of a party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part in obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of those obligations to the extent it is thereby unable to perform, and such incapacity to perform shall not make such party liable to any other party. The subject matter of the TC is deemed not to be affected by force of law, circumstances or events beyond the reasonable control of the party who is thereby affected.

10. Advertising & Reprints

Advertise and Entrap is a service to be provided subject to the Client’s express written consent. If the Client requests to opt out of the Advertising & Reprints service, the Client will be charged a fee to cover any costs incurred for the delivery of the service. The Client is solely responsible for ensuring proposed advertising copy is received at Elsevier in electronic form (or such other form as specified by Elsevier) and within the relevant deadline set by Elsevier (the "Closing Date"). Where copy is received late at all, or.Invariant, or subsequently rejected by Elsevier, the Client is liable for the cost of re-copying or redoing the advertisement.

11. Applicability

If the Client is directed to do any by law enforcement agency, court or government agency ("a") on the subject of a client asserted by an entity to which it or such entity is at the time of the TC or on any other entity, either in electronic form (or such other form as specified by Elsevier) and within the relevant deadline set by Elsevier (the "Closing Date"). Where copy is received late at all, or.Invariant, or subsequently rejected by Elsevier, the Client is liable for the cost of re-copying or redoing the advertisement.

12. Advertising & Reprints

The Client shall not engage in or permit others to engage in any activities designed to imprison Elsevier’s authorized representatives, which activities shall include, but not be limited to, the Client (or others acting on the Client’s behalf) scamming, stealing, or otherwise inadequately providing access to the Client’s facilities, books, and records. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/performance of the Products and Services are intended to be an estimate and time for delivery/performance shall not be made of the essence by the notice. If no date is specified, performance will be at the earliest convenience of Elsevier.

13. Cancellations & Returns

No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgment of order is issued by Elsevier or (if earlier) Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commences performance of the Services for the Client. All product orders are accepted subject to availability of the ordered Products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, the Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If the Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the Client is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use. Personal Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. Upon this violation of any representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to deliver all recipients of the Products and Services from Elsevier, including all actual recipients that have not previously been properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with the provisions of the TC and agree by both parties, including including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for repudiation of the contract, as the case may be, unless the Client demands rescission.
