2. Applicability  These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the “Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (“the Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the “TC”). They supersede any previous supply terms and conditions. For the purposes of the TC, Elsevier shall mean the company within the Elsevier group that is providing the Products or Services as set out on the relevant TC, unless a different party is specified in writing by Elsevier to the Client. The terms and conditions under which the Services are provided shall be as set out on the relevant TC or in any written agreement entered into between Elsevier and the Client for the supply of Services. The Client is advised to check the TC to identify which party is providing the Services (the “Providing Party”). The Pricing and Terms section on the Rate Card will also show the terms under which the Services are provided.

3. Payment and other benefits  Except as otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, the Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If the Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the Client is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for valid personal use. Client acknowledges that this representation and warranty will cause impairable harm to Elsevier. Upon violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to disclose all recipients of the Products and Services from Elsevier, including all actual recipients that have not previously properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with the provisions of the Products and Services agreed by both parties in the relevant order, including such things as format, printing processes, design and size of address file, weights and the like. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertisements used by Elsevier in its catalogues or brochures are issued or published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described in them. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for rejection or returns, as the case may be, nor shall they be charged.

The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or Services by any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of its sales of the Products, exercising full control and solely bearing all of its own losses resulting from any uncollected amounts. Delays or failures in obtaining such payments will not affect the Client’s obligation to make payments to Elsevier under clause 4.

6. Intellectual property  Copyright and other intellectual property rights to all Elsevier proposals, publications and other Works or Services or Services shall remain with Elsevier unless agreed otherwise in writing.
