2. Applicability These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the “Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (”the Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the “TC”). They supersede any previous supply terms and conditions. For the purposes of the TC, Elsevier shall mean the company within the Elsevier group that is providing the Products or Services as set out on the invoice or other document from time to time which have been accepted by the Client and to whom the Client fires a purchase order in respect of the Products or Services. Orders for products and services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the agent is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use. Client acknowledges that validation of this representation and warranty will cause immediate harm to Elsevier. Upon any violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to discontinue all recipients of the Products or Services from Elsevier, including all actual recipients that have not been previously properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with descriptions of the Products and Services agreed by both parties in the relevant order, including such things as format, printing, techniques, design and size and kind of address, field size and the like. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising issued by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier’s catalogues or brochures are issued as published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described in them. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design character of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for rejecting delivery and the Client shall not be entitled to any price reduction. 3. Modification and execution of order Modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget, schedule, or set out in the order acknowledgement, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional Services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall act in the name of, to the account of, and at the risk of the Client. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/performanc of the Products and Services are intended to be an estimate and time for delivery/performance shall not be made of the essence by notice. If no dates are so specified, performance/b/efall delivery will be at the earliest convenience of Elsevier. 4. Prices, taxes and currency Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing the prices for the Products and Services shall be set out in Elsevier’s current price list (whether print or online). All such prices shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, shipping, transport and insurance charges unless otherwise agreed in writing, and shall also be exclusive of any taxes, import duties or other levies imposed on the sale or import of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as appropriate. Where applicable, Client will provide to Elsevier Client’s VAT registration number or other evidence of tax clearance at Elsevier to the extent of its payment of any such tax. Under no circumstances will Elsevier be liable for any duty, tax, fee or charge, whether imposed by local, state or national authority and payable in connection with the delivery of the Products and/or Services to the Client, other than any such tax, duties or fees which Elsevier is required by law to charge and collect. All such duties, taxes or fees in addition to the price stated in the invoice shall be borne by Client unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the written consent of Elsevier. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it to any person, firm or company. If any provision of the TC is found by any court, tribunal or legal authority of any country to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of the TC shall continue in full force and effect. Failure or delay by Elsevier in enforcing or partially enforcing any provision (or prosecuting any breach) of the TC will not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under the TC.
