1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to (a) proposals, offers and purchases made to Elsevier by the Client and (b) any third party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgment, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). They supersede any previous understandings or communications between the parties.

2. Price, taxes and currencies

Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, all prices/rates for the Products and Services shall be those set out in the Rate Card for the relevant period. Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, any representation about the Products and Services shall have no effect unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorized signatory of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier's liability for fraud, misrepresentation or injury to person or property resulting from Elsevier's negligence.

3. Cancellations & Returns

Products and Services are non-refundable. Where the Client requests a return of a purchase, he/she, or his/her agent, shall be required to send the Product in question to Elsevier at the Client's expense, and Elsevier shall have the right to inspect the Product. In the event that Elsevier determines that a Product is not damaged or defaced in any way, the Client will be refunded the purchase price paid in respect of the Product. In the event that the Client is not satisfied with the Product, Elsevier will, at its discretion, either return the Product or exchange it for another Product or provide a credit note for the purchase price paid.

4. Distribution

The Client acknowledges that the Products and Services shall be distributed by Elsevier to the Client and any other parties to whom the Client may authorize Elsevier to distribute the Products and Services.

5. Payment

Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, the Client shall pay for the Products and Services on receipt of an invoice from Elsevier. If the invoice is in whole or in part not paid in full within the time specified in the invoice, Elsevier may charge interest on the outstanding amount from the due date at the rate of 5% per annum, or at such higher rate as Elsevier may determine from time to time.

6. Intellectual property

Copyright and other intellectual property rights to all Elsevier proposals, publications and other Products and Services shall remain with Elsevier unless agreed otherwise in writing. The parties agree that the TC and any variations made to it by mutual agreement are the complete and exclusive agreements between the parties and supersede all prior agreements or understandings.

7. Audit

(ii) refund to Client a pro rata portion of the fee which Client has paid to Elsevier for display of the Advertising Content on or after any space closing date, but in the event that any cancellations are made after such date, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge the full cost of space at the space closing date. Where more than one Advertising Content is to be published, if the Client requests that any of these Advertising Content is to appear on a specific page, Elsevier shall use its best efforts to do so, but Elsevier shall be entitled to refuse to accept any request for a specific page and in such event, Elsevier shall be entitled to place such Advertising Content in any position it may see fit, whether or not the same content is to appear in a different Advertising Content.

8. Liability and Claims

THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY RELEVANT LAWS

(ii) Any loss, damage or expense suffered by a Client as a result of Elsevier's breach of any of its obligations under the TC, including any loss, damage or expense caused by the Client's breach or alleged breach of any of the following:

- The Client's breach or alleged breach of any of the TCs or other laws or regulations applicable to the TC;

Where any part of the Client's reprints are sent to Elsevier in printed form, the Client shall ensure that such reprints are received at Elsevier in printed form and in electronic form (or such other form as specified by Elsevier) and within the relevant deadline set by Elsevier (the "Closing Date"). Where a Client is entitled to receive reprints of the Products or Services which are not in electronic form, the Client shall be responsible for ensuring that the reprints are in electronic form and that Elsevier is notified in writing of any changes to the time or date of the Closing Date. Where copy is received late or not at all, although Elsevier will endeavour to do so, Elsevier cannot guarantee that the Client will receive the reprints in time for the Closing Date.
