Overview

Structural Heart is a unique, international and peer-reviewed journal focusing on diagnosing and treating diseases of the heart valves, myocardium and great vessels as well as congenital heart disease and shedding light on the importance of the heart team in this process. The Journal covers topics such as transcatheter procedures, cardiovascular surgery, drug treatment, basic and translational science and imaging in structural heart disease and innovation (new devices, therapies and first-in-humans). Each issue contains original research, reviews, opinion pieces, editorials and images in cardiovascular disease.

ELSEVIER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUPPLY

2. Applicability These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). The Client shall be bound by the terms and conditions of supply as detailed in the TC and any modifications to the TC shall result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier's discretion. If the Client accepts the offer by signing and delivering the signed copy of the TC to Elsevier, Elsevier will consider the Client to have agreed to all the terms and conditions of the offer as set out in the TC and any modifications to the TC. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation. Where Products are sold to the Client that contain third party software or software such a sale may be subject to additional licence terms.

3. Execution and modification of the order Any modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget, or schedule, as set out in the order acknowledgement, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier's discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional Services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall act in the name of, and to the account of, and at the risk of the Client. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/performance of the Products and Services are intended to be at the Client's convenience and delivery/performance shall not be made of the exercise of any right. If no dates are specified, performance will be within a reasonable time.

4. Prices, taxes and currency Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, the prices for the Products and Services shall be set out in Elsevier's current price list (whether print or online). All such prices shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, insurance, transport and insurance charges unless otherwise agreed in writing, and shall also be exclusive of any taxes, import duties or other taxes imposed on the sale or import of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as applicable. Where applicable, Elsevier will provide the Client with VAT registration number or other evidence of tax exemption to Elsevier at the time of placing its order. If, under the law of the territory in which the Client is selling the Products, the Client is required to withhold any tax on the payment of any invoice or other amount to Elsevier under the TC, any such tax or withholding shall be charged to the Client. The Client shall not be entitled to deduct or withhold any tax from the payment of any invoice or other amount to Elsevier. The Client shall provide Elsevier with evidence of tax paid to Elsevier or approved by Elsevier to justify tax or withholding deductions. The Client shall be responsible for fulfilling its obligations and for payment of any such tax or withholding.

5. Payment Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency invoiced. Time for payment shall be of the essence. Elsevier may set any credit limits for any Client account and shall be entitled to refuse to supply any Client who has exceeded its current credit limit. Legal and beneficial title in any tangible Products supplied by Elsevier to the Client shall remain with Elsevier until Elsevier has received in full (in cash or cleared funds) all sums due to it in respect of the Products and all other sums which are or which become due to Elsevier from the Client on account of any breach of this TC or any implied warranty, condition or other term, any representation or any duty of any kind imposed on Elsevier by operation of law; (ii) any loss of anticipated profits or expected future business; (iii) any damage or expense which are directly related to the promotion, demonstration or explanation of Products or Services or the Client's breach or alleged breach of any of the foregoing representations and warranties. Elsevier reserves the right, at any time, to remove any Product or element from any Product without notice.

6. Liability and claims To THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW AND REGULATIONS, ELSEVIER EXPRESSLY EXCLUDES ANY LIABILITY FOR BREACH OF ANY IMPLIED OR EXPRESS WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. NOTHING IN THIS CONTRACT SHALL LIMIT THE CLIENT'S EXISTING LEGAL OR STATUTORY RIGHTS WHERE IT IS ACTING AS A CONSUMER. The parties agree that the United Nations Contracts for the International Sale of Goods shall not apply to this TC or the interpretation or enforcement thereof. The Client has entered into this TC in the knowledge that the liability of Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with these Terms and Conditions. The Client acknowledges that a higher price would be payable for the Products or Services but for such limitations.

7. Force majeure If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, refusal to obtain labor materials, fire or other action of the elements, accidents, power or telecommunications failure, customs delays, governmental restrictions or appropriation or other causes beyond the control of a party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part its obligations as set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of those obligations to the extent it is thereby unable to perform, and such failure to perform shall not make such party liable to any other party. The subject matter of this contract is insurance against any such occurrence.

8. Advertising & Reprints The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products or Services of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in those activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of its sales of the Products, exercising full control and safety keeping all of its losses from any uncollected amounts. Delay or failure in obtaining such payments will not affect the Client's obligation to make payments to Elsevier under the TC.

9. Property ownership The Client shall take reasonable care to ensure that the Products are appropriately secured against theft or damage. Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, title to the Products shall pass to the Client at the time for delivery/performance shall not be made of the exercise of any right. If no dates are specified, performance will be within a reasonable time.

10. Order, cancellation & returns If the Client cancels an order either fully or partially, a cancellation fee may be charged. All cancellations must be made by letter or e-mail to Elsevier within five (5) business days of receipt of our order acknowledgement. This fee will be calculated to cover any external or internal costs which have been incurred or committed up to and including the date of receipt of the cancellation. If the Client cancels an order after the date of performance, Elsevier reserves the right to cancel the order and the Client shall be liable for all costs incurred or committed up to that date. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier agrees to substitute Products, Services or any term or condition, the Client shall be liable for all costs incurred or committed up to the cancellation date.

11. Audit Elsevier shall be entitled to an audit of the Client's accounting procedures and accounting books and records to verify the accuracy of any advertisement supplied by the Client. Elsevier may terminate this TC at any time in the event of a breach of any of the conditions of supply. In addition, Elsevier shall have the right, at any time, to remove any Product or element from any Product without notice.

12. Indemnification The Client shall hold Elsevier harmless and indemnify Elsevier from claims, demands, or losses by or on behalf of any person or entity; (iii) Advertising Content complies with any applicable laws, rules, industry codes, regulations and any other applicable requirements; (iv) the Client will not, in any way, directly or indirectly, sell or transfer the Products or any part thereof to any person, firm or company. If any provision of the TC is found by any court, tribunal or other government authority to be void or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of the TC shall continue in full force and effect. Failure or delay by Elsevier in enforcing or partially enforcing any provision (or rescission of any breach) of the TC shall not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under the TC.
