The American Journal of Clinical Nutrition

Overview

A highly rated peer-reviewed, primary research journal in nutrition and dietetics, The American Journal of Clinical Nutrition (AJCN) publishes the latest research on topics in nutrition, such as obesity, vitamins and minerals, nutrition and disease, and energy metabolism. The purpose of AJCN is to publish original research studies relevant to human and clinical nutrition. Well-controlled clinical studies that describe scientific mechanisms, efficacy, and safety of dietary interventions in the context of disease prevention or a health benefit will be considered. Public health and epidemiologic studies relevant to human nutrition, and innovative investigations of nutritional questions that employ epigenetic, genomic, proteomic, and metabolomic approaches are encouraged. Solicited editorials, book reviews, solicited or unsolicited review articles, invited controversy position papers, and letters to the Editor that relate to prior AJCN articles are essential components of the AJCN. All submitted material with scientific content will undergo peer review by the Editors or their designees before acceptance for publication.

1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals, and agreements made by and between Elsevier, and any third party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). They supersede any previous correspondence or agreements.

2. Offer and acceptance/ Description

Each order for the Products and Services by the Client from Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or [finally] Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client confirming performance of the Services for the Client. All product orders are subject to availability of the ordered products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products from Elsevier for its own use and not for and on behalf of any other person or entity. If the Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for the sole use of and on behalf of any other person or entity.

3. Execution and modification of the order

Any modifications to the product or service description, budget, or schedule, as set out in the order acknowledgement, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier's discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional services, the fees shall be charged at Elsevier's normal rates and prices.

4. Prices, taxes and currencies

Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, prices shall be exclusive of any additional costs which may arise as a result of the applicable VAT or any other tax, local or national, which shall be charged by Elsevier at the same time.

5. Payment

Payment shall be made within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency advised. Interest at a rate of 5% per annum will be charged on all overdue amounts.

6. Distribution

The Client shall ensure that any copies, reproduction, or replication of the Products or any other products of Elsevier or its affiliates, shall be used or utilised only for legitimate purposes or to engage in legitimate activities.

7. Intellectual property

Copyright and other intellectual property rights to all Elsevier proposals, publications and other works of the Client shall remain with Elsevier unless agreed otherwise in writing. The Client shall not grant any rights, licenses, or other intellectual property rights in the Products or Services to any third party.

8. Liability and claims

Elsevier shall not be liable for any breach of this TC if it is unable to perform in whole or in part as a result of any act of God or any other cause beyond the control of Elsevier. Elsevier's liability shall not exceed the Client's purchase price for the respective Product or Service. Elsevier shall not be liable for any other loss, including any loss that was not foreseeable by the Client and Elsevier at the time this TC was entered into; or (f) any loss not recoverable under sub-paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), or (f).

9. Force majeure

The Client acknowledges that, if the Client is in breach of any of the terms of the then applicable TC, Elsevier may, at its discretion, terminate this TC in whole or in part, without prejudice to any rights it may have against the Client for any other breach of this TC or any other breach of any other agreement to which the Client is a party.

10. Advertising & Reprints

If the Client cancels an order either fully or partially, a cancellation fee may be charged. All cancellations must be notified in writing within ten (10) days of the invoice date. This fee will be calculated to cover any external or internal costs which have been incurred or committed up to and including the time of cancellation. The Client acknowledges that it is responsible for any costs incurred by Elsevier in connection with the Product or Service.

11. Audit

Elsevier may not be able to arrange for such copy to be published on the agreed date or for the agreed period. Payment will be made to the Client in accordance with the then applicable TC. Payment must be made in the currency advised on the invoice. If payment is not made within the agreed period, interest at a rate of 5% per annum will be charged on all overdue amounts.

12. Compliance with laws

If the Client wishes to dispute any invoice in part, the Client shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, but not later than five (5) days from the due date, issue full details of such dispute to Elsevier. The Client shall not refuse to pay any undisputed portion of each invoice. Elsevier may decline to accept payment in advance and may suspend performance of its obligations arising from the TC until such balance payment has been received. If Elsevier is a recipient for Elsevier, in respect of any other order under the TC, the Client shall allow Elsevier to withhold payment of the Products or Services until full payment has been received by Elsevier. The Client shall not refuse to pay any undisputed amount.

13. Cancellations & Returns

If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional services, the fees shall be charged at Elsevier's normal rates and prices.

14. Accessibility

Any modifications to the product or service description, budget, or schedule, as set out in the order acknowledgement, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier's discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional services, the fees shall be charged at Elsevier's normal rates and prices.
