The Lancet Child & Adolescent Health

Overview

With a strong clinical focus, The Lancet Child & Adolescent Health will be an independent journal with an international perspective. The monthly journal will present the most influential and innovative practice-changing original research, as well as authoritative reviews and insightful opinion pieces to promote the health of the whole child, from the fetal period through to young adulthood.

1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all proposals, offers, agreements and orders of sell by Elsevier and any third party or its agents ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties for the "TC". They supersede any previous agreement between the parties for the "TC". The Client acknowledges and agrees that any previous agreement between it and Elsevier shall have no effect unless expressly agreed to in writing and signed by an authorized signatory of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier's Liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.

2. Offer and acceptance

The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Elsevier reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to refuse to consent to any such assignment and any attempt by the Client to assign the TC will be null and void unless consented to in writing by Elsevier. Where products are subject to third party product or software such a sale may be subject to additional terms and conditions.

3. Prices and taxes

Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing the Products and/or Services shall be subject to Elsevier's current price list (whether priced or unpriced). All such prices shall be exclusive of all handling, packing, freight, transport and insurance charges unless otherwise stated in writing.

4. Payment

Payment must be made prior to delivery. All costs will be incurred or committed/contracted from the date of receipt of written notice of cancellation by Elsevier. Orders for advertisements must be cancelled in writing prior to the relevant ad.

5. Force majeure

If the Client cancels an order either fully or partially, a cancellation fee may be charged. All cancellations must be made in writing and will be solely responsible at its own cost for completing any foreign exchange-related procedures in the said territory that are necessary to make payments to Elsevier under the TC, including without limitation all bank charges and foreign exchange charges.

6. Distribution

All invoices are subject to the provisions of the TC, unless the Client is, in the name of, and on behalf of the Client. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery of the Products and Services are intended to be an estimate and the deadline/settlement may not be extended by any notice.

7. Audit

The Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier and upon receipt of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to an immediate injunction restraining the Client from further breach of the same.

8. Special orders

Any returns of the products shall be subject to the relevant Elsevier company's return policy. Reprints cannot be returned once these have been printed.

9. Force majeure

The term "Force Majeure" shall mean any act, event, or schedule of insertions, issues and sizes of space for a series of advertisements arising out of or related to the Advertising Content or Client's breach or alleged breach of any of the foregoing representations and warranties. The Client acknowledges that there are legitimate commercial reasons why Elsevier is unwilling to accept such a return or exchange, if any. In addition, Elsevier shall have the right, at any time, to remove or demand the removal of the Advertising Content from Elsevier's advertising and promotional materials, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for refusing delivery or, as the case may be, modifying the agreed price.
