1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or to any order (the “Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (the “Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between Elsevier and the Client and shall entirely supersede any previous statements, representations or understandings, oral or written, between Elsevier and the Client. Any modification of these terms and conditions by the Client shall be null and void unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorized signatory of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s liability for death or personal injury caused by its negligence, or for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or for any other liability which cannot be excluded or limited by law.

2. Offer and acceptance/ Description

Each order for the Products and Services by the Client to Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or (if earlier) Elsevier delivers the Products or incurs the invoice to the Client or confirms performance of the Services for the Client. All orders are accepted subject to availability of the ordered Products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, Client acknowledges and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. (Client) in a good faith and represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no one else and that no identified institutional subscriber as principal as if it is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a separate capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for valid personal use. Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. Upon any violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring replacement all Elsevier Products and Services from Client including, without limitation, an account of profits which have been and will be used to pay Elsevier, under the TC, the amount of the payment which will be automatically recovered by its order to such extent, in whole or in part, as the Client has actually received, without prejudice to any of Elsevier’s other rights and remedies. The Client shall be liable for any unpaid subscription due. Such subscription shall be deemed to include a payment of reasonable and bona fide expenditures, such as travel or lodging expenses, which are directly attributable to the performance of the order placed by the Client.

3. Prices, taxes and currencies

Where general terms and conditions of trade of Elsevier so specify, delivery/performance will be within a reasonable time. To the maximum extent permitted by relevant laws (i) Elsevier shall not be liable for any of the following losses which may arise by reason of any breach of this TC or any implied warranty, condition or other term, any representation or any duty of any kind imposed on Elsevier by operation of law: (a) any loss of anticipated profits or expected future business; (b) damage to reputation or goodwill; (c) any damages, costs or expenses which are not reasonably incurred by the Client; (d) any loss that was not foreseeable by the Client and Elsevier at the time this TC was entered into; or (f) any loss not caused by Elsevier’s negligence, breach of contract or breach of this TC which is not caused by the Client’s negligence, breach of contract or breach of this TC.

4. Liability and claims

If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or other action of the elements, or appropriation or other causes beyond the control of a party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part its obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of those obligations to the extent it is thereby relieved, and such inability to perform shall be excused to the extent otherwise agreed in writing and shall not be deemed to constitute a breach of contract by such party. The party subject to an event of force majeure shall use good faith efforts to comply as closely as possible with its obligations provided for in this TC. These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or to any order (the “Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (the “Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between Elsevier and the Client and shall entirely supersede any previous statements, representations or understandings, oral or written, between Elsevier and the Client. Any modification of these terms and conditions by the Client shall be null and void unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorized signatory of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s liability for death or personal injury caused by its negligence, or for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or for any other liability which cannot be excluded or limited by law.
