EELSEVER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUPPLY

1. Applicability
   These terms and conditions shall apply to all proposals, quotations and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (“the Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (“the Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the “TC”). They supersede any previous supply terms and conditions of Elsevier. Products and Services shall mean all products and/or services ordered by the Client as set out on the Elsevier order acknowledgement or invoice.

2. Applicability of the TC
   Each order for the sale or supply of Products and Services by the Client from Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or [Elsevier] Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or confirms performance of the Services for the Client. All products are offered and sold subject to the terms and conditions of the applicable Elsevier invoice or order acknowledgment for the Products and Services. Instructions to the contrary shall not be binding on Elsevier unless and until confirmed by Elsevier in writing.

3. Serviceability and Description
   Subject to the Client confirming to Elsevier in writing that all third party products or software such rate may be subject to additional terms.

4. Acceptance and description of the TC
   The Client shall have 14 days from the delivery of the Products or receipt of the Services to the Client to notify Elsevier of any defects in the Products or Services which are apparent at such time. Elsevier shall have 14 days from receipt of such complaint to allow the Client to inspect the Products or Services and, if within such 14 days, Elsevier does not indicate to the Client that the Products or Services are fit for the purposes for which they are supplied, the Client may return the Products or Services to Elsevier at the Client’s expense and at Elsevier’s risk, and Elsevier will, at Elsevier’s discretion, either (a) refund the Client within 30 days of receipt of the Products or Services, or (b) replace the Products or Services.

5. Payment
   Payment shall be due on the dates specified on the invoice. Giving of any discount will be at the discretion of Elsevier. The Client is responsible for the payment of all taxes, duties, levies, and charges due in respect of the Products or Services. For payments made in respect of the Products or Services, Elsevier will provide an invoice to the Client. Unless otherwise agreed in writing between the parties, Elsevier will charge interest at the rate of 1% per month on all overdue accounts.

6. Distribution
   Monthly average web metrics based on the period of July 2022 to June 2023. Elsevier shall have the sole right to determine the method and channel of distribution of the Products or Services. The Client shall not assign or delegate any of its rights or obligations under this TC without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Elsevier may sub-contract the performance of the obligations under this TC to third parties as it may determine from time to time without liability to the Client.

7. Right of Product
   Legal and beneficial title in any tangible Products supplied by Elsevier to the Client shall remain with Elsevier until the amount actually remitted to Elsevier, net of all taxes, equals the amount invoiced or otherwise due. The Client shall not be entitled to sell, assign, mortgage or alienate the Products until such amount is remitted to Elsevier. The Client shall be solely responsible for all costs of delivery and insurance.

8. Liability and claims
   Any claim for replacement or repair of Products or Services must be notified within 14 days of delivery of the Products or Services or 14 days of the Client discovering any faults in the Products or Services. Any claim for replacement or repair of Products or Services must be made in writing to Elsevier. Elsevier will not be liable for any failure of performance if the failure is caused by circumstances beyond Elsevier’s reasonable control, including acts of God, war, riot, strike, lock-out, failure of or damage to the facilities or equipment used by Elsevier, or any situation which Elsevier cannot reasonably be expected to control.

9. Warranty
   Elsevier warrants that the Products or Services supplied to the Client will be free from any defect in design, material or workmanship and will substantially conform to the description and specification. Elsevier’s obligations under this warranty are limited to replacement at Elsevier’s discretion, or at Elsevier’s option, to a refund of the purchase price for the Products or Services. The Client agrees to notify Elsevier within 14 days of delivery of the Products or Services of any fault which is apparent at delivery.

10. Advertising & Reprints
   The Client is responsible for ensuring proposed advertising copy is received at Elsevier in electronic form (or such other manner as specified by Elsevier) and within the relevant deadline set by Elsevier (the “Closing Date”). Where copy is received late or not at all, although Elsevier will endeavour to do so, it will not be responsible for any failure to publish such copy. The Client agrees to pay, and Elsevier shall be entitled to recover, a non-refundable cancellation fee for any unsold advertising space or issues. The Client is responsible for ensuring that all advertising copy is received in electronic form (or such other manner as specified by Elsevier).

11. Overall terms & conditions

If the Client is in liquidation, insolvency or bankrupt or is subject to any other legal or administrative proceeding or sanction of any type, Elsevier shall have the right to cease the supply of the Products to the Client, including without limitation all advertising space and charges.

12. Compliance with laws
   The Client agrees to ensure that all of its activities and actions in connection with the Products or Services are in accordance with all laws, local, national or international, that have been enacted or shall be enacted by any governmental, regulatory or administrative authority. The Client agrees to indemnify and hold Elsevier harmless against any costs, charges or expenses incurred by Elsevier in connection with the Products or Services.
