1. Applicability
These terms and conditions shall apply to proposals, offers and agreements made by and between any party or its third party agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). They supersede any previous agreements between the parties for the sale of the Products and/or Services. 3. Execution and modification of the order
The Client acknowledges that any order modification (whether for delivery date, quantities, price, etc.) must be confirmed in writing by an authorized representative of Elsevier. Any such modification will be regarded as a new order and subject to a new order acknowledgement.

4. Prices, taxes and currencies
Prices shall be exclusive of all taxes and duties levied by any government, provincial, state, local, national, or other taxing authority. Any and all taxes and duties imposed on the price of the Products and/or Services shall be the sole responsibility of the Client. Client shall be responsible for and shall at its own cost and expense assume all risk of any taxes, duties or other charges that may be imposed upon any Product and/or Service purchased by the Client.

5. Intellectual property
Client represents and warrants that (i) Client holds the necessary rights, licenses and permissions to use, sell, distribute, or otherwise use the Products and/or Services in accordance with the TC and any order acknowledgement, and (ii) Client has obtained all necessary rights, licenses and permissions from third parties to publish, distribute, or otherwise make available the Products and/or Services to the Client. Client further represents and warrants that Client shall not violate any applicable laws, regulations, or rights of third parties in connection with the use, sale, distribution, or other use of the Products and/or Services.

6. Distribution

Elsevier shall not be liable for any fees, charges, or expenses incurred by Client in collecting such amounts. Client shall make reasonable efforts to collect all amounts due and owing under the TC.

8. Liability and claims
Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s Liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.

9. Force majeure
Neither party shall be liable for any failure or delay in its obligations under the TC due to circumstances beyond its reasonable control.

10. Advertising & Reprints
From time to time Elsevier may arrange for the publication of a limited number of reprints of Articles ("Reprints") on a client’s behalf. Client shall pay for the Reprints and any charges or fees incurred by Elsevier in connection with the publication of the Reprints.

11. Audit
Client shall allow Publisher’s authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client’s premises (or any other place where Intellectual Property is located) for the purpose of inspecting Client’s facilities, books and records to verify Client’s compliance with the TC.

12. Compliance with laws
Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Elsevier reserves the right to terminate this TC if any clause, provision, or condition of the TC is held by any court, tribunal or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be wholly or partly illegal, invalid, unenforceable or void, or any part thereof.
