The Journal of Pain

Overview

The Journal of Pain publishes original articles on all aspects of pain, including clinical and basic research, patient care, education, and health policy. Articles selected for publication in the Journal are most commonly reports of original clinical research or reports of original basic research. In addition, invited critical reviews, including meta analyses of drugs for pain management, invited commentaries on reviews, and exceptional case studies are published in the Journal. The mission of the Journal is to improve the care of patients in pain by providing a forum for clinical researchers, basic scientists, clinicians, and other health professionals to publish original research. 2018 Impact Factor 5.424

1. Applicability

This application and these terms and conditions shall apply to the Products and/or Services as defined in the Order and any other matters to which it is a party (the “Client”) relating to the products and/or Services (the “Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the whole agreement between the parties for the TC. These terms supersede any previous agreements or understandings between the Client and Elsevier relating to the Products and/or Services set out in an order or Elsevier order acknowledgement or invoice. These terms and conditions of business are proposed by the Client, these terms shall apply, and the TC shall prevail. Any variation to the TC and any representations about the Products and Services shall have no effect unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorized signature of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s Liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.

2. Offer and acceptance/Description

Each order for the Products and Services by the Client from Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or [Elsevier] deliver the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or confirms performance of the Services for the Client. All products supplied are subject to availability of the ordered products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products from Elsevier for its own internal use and not and not behalf of and other person or entity. If the Client is an agency, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for the account of one or more its more specifically identified subcontractor as principal or agent if the agency is permitted to order personal subscriptions in bulk, for the account and use of no more than one identified individual subscriber for personal use. The Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier upon any violation of this representation and warranty.

3. Execution and modification of the order

If any modification of the TC or any representation about the products or Services, or pricing, is made in writing by the Client, such modifications are expressly made subject to and conditional on either a) the Client’s terms and conditions of business prevailing at the time of making such a modification being applicable and b) such modifications being expressly agreed in writing by Elsevier. Partial performance shall be no basis for rejection of overall performance or cancellation of the contract. The Client shall allow Elsevier’s authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to the Client’s premises (or any other premises as specified by Elsevier) and the Client’s facilities, books and records to verify the Client’s compliance with the TC.

4. Prices, taxes and currencies

All prices are non-exclusive and in USD unless otherwise stated. Discounts, if any, shall not be applicable to any Products supplied to the Client for which the Client has agreed to pay the full purchase price in advance, nor to any Products supplied to the Client for which the Client has agreed to pay the full purchase price in full in advance. Any Products and/or Services set out in or relating to this TC, including any changes, additions or deletions thereto, are subject to the Client’s offer and acceptance and to the Client’s terms and conditions of business, as the Client may later impose or change. All Clients' orders are subject to the knowledge that the liability of Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with these terms and conditions and the Product and/or Service will be provided to the Client in the form and quality that Elsevier deems fitting. The Client acknowledges that a higher price would be payable for the Products or Services but for such limitations. The Client agrees to provide Elsevier with such information as Elsevier may reasonably request in order to facilitate Elsevier’s provision of the Products or Services to the Client. Any Products and/or Services will be provided in the form and condition as agreed by the Client and Elsevier, and will be delivered in the form and condition as agreed by the Client and Elsevier and as set out in the relevant terms and conditions of business. The Client acknowledges that the Client is responsible for accepting the final delivery of the Products or Services.

5. Payment

Payment will be made to Elsevier by the Client in cleared funds, in the currency of the offer and in the amount specified in the offer. Payment shall not be assigned, delegated or transferred without Elsevier’s prior written consent. All payment dates shall be deemed to be the due date unless otherwise specified by Elsevier. No payment is to be considered as having been received unless Elsevier is in receipt of cleared funds. All payments are subject to GST and other applicable taxes unless otherwise agreed in writing. The Client shall be entitled to deduct any taxes or other charges levied on the Products or Services or incurred by Elsevier on the Client’s behalf. Delivery of the Products and/or Services provides evidence of the Client’s non-payment of the Client’s account. Any claim by Elsevier for past due or overdue amounts will accrue interest. Any Products and/or Services delivered to the Client will remain the property of Elsevier until payment in full is received in cleared funds. The Client shall be liable for all costs and expenses incurred by Elsevier in recovering any amounts due. No new external uses of any products or services will be allowed unless Elsevier’s written consent is first obtained.

6. Distribution

The Client shall not engage, reproduce, or plagiarize the Products or any other products of Elsevier in any manner unless it is permitted to do so by Elsevier. The Client shall not otherwise copy, translate, distribute, sell, rent, lend, reproduce, display, broadcast, publicly perform, publicly display, transmit, transmit by telecommunications, upload, download, or otherwise transfer any part of the Products to any other entity. The Client shall not acquire any intellectual property rights in the Products. No part of the Elsevier proposals, publications or claims shall be reproduced, in any medium or format, in whole or in part, without the prior written permission of Elsevier. The Client shall not acquire any intellectual property rights in the Products. The Client will be solely responsible for any costs or expenses arising from the Client’s compliance with the terms of the TC.

7. Intellectual property

Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Elsevier will stop at its option to sell or offer for sale any Products or Services if the Client, either alone or in combination with others, misappropriates such Products or Services, breaches any of the provisions of this TC and to avoid the effects of such event to the extent possible. The Client acknowledges that Elsevier is not responsible for any Products or Services delivered to the Client if the Client does not have the necessary rights, permissions, licenses, or authorizations to use such Products or Services.
