1. Applicability

These terms and conditions apply to all offers, proposals, and agreements made between and by any party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgment, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). They supersede any previous understandings or communications between the parties.

2. Offer and acceptance

Any offer for the purchase of the Products and Services by the Client from Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the terms and conditions of the TC. All orders placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted when written notice of acceptance is received by Elsevier and the TC is deemed to be formed when Elsevier sends the Client a copy of the TC. The Client acknowledges that all offers and orders for the Products or Services are subject to acceptance by Elsevier.

3. Customer's guarantee

The Client guarantees to Elsevier that the Products or Services shall be used exclusively by the Client for the Client's own internal use or for the Client's own internal business purposes only. The Client further agrees that the Client shall not themselves, nor shall any of the Client's employees, agents, or representatives, disclose information to any third party and that the Client shall not induce, solicit, or encourage any employee of Elsevier to divulge or disclose any proprietary or confidential information to any third party.

4. Prices, taxes and currencies

The prices of the Products and Services shall be according to the quotation of Elsevier and shall be quoted in sterling. Any price quoted in the quotation shall be valid for a period of thirty (30) days and is subject to alter in any event. From the due date of the invoice to the date of payment in full, interest at the rate of 9% per annum shall be payable by the Client to Elsevier on all overdue amounts. All payments due under the TC shall be made by the Client to Elsevier without any deduction or set-off of any kind. The Client shall not be entitled to make any deduction under the TC, unless the TC includes provisions to that effect.

5. Payment

The Client shall pay for the Products and Services in full without any deduction or set-off whether by way of set-off, counterclaim, discount, abatement or otherwise. From the due date of the invoice to the date of payment in full, interest at the rate of 9% per annum shall be payable by the Client to Elsevier on all overdue amounts. All payments due under the TC shall be made by the Client to Elsevier without any deduction or set-off of any kind. The Client shall not be entitled to make any deduction under the TC, unless the TC includes provisions to that effect.

6. Delivery

Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, the Products and Services shall be delivered to the Client at such times and places as agreed between the Client and Elsevier. The Client shall be responsible for unloading the Products and Services at the place of delivery if delivery is to be made by the Client.

7. Risk and title

Title to the Products shall pass to the Client at the point of delivery, provided that title to any Products which are held by Elsevier for any reason whatsoever shall remain with Elsevier until they have been paid for in full. The Client shall indemnify Elsevier against any loss or damage to the Products until title has passed to the Client.
