JSES Reviews, Reports & Techniques

Overview

JSES Reviews, Reports and Techniques is an open access and online-only journal that concentrates exclusively on medical, surgical, and physical research and best practice on treating injury/disease of the upper extremity, including the shoulder girdle, upper arm, and elbow. This publication is an official member of the Journal of Shoulder and Elbow Surgery (JSES) family of journals and is sponsored by eleven leading upper extremity orthopedic organizations globally. Clinically oriented and peer-reviewed, JSES Reviews, Reports, and Techniques provides an international forum for the exchange of information that focuses on clinical and basic science review articles, case reports, and novel surgical techniques.

2. Applicability These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the "Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). They supersede any previous supply terms and conditions. For the purposes of the TC, Elsevier shall mean the company within the Elsevier group that is providing the Products or Services as set out on the order acknowledgement. If the order refers to a particular region of the world, it shall be Elsevier's local office for that region. The TC and any order acknowledgement shall be governed by the internal country law of the country of Elsevier's local office for that region. Nothing in the TC shall exclude or limit Elsevier's liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation. Where Products are sold to the Client that contain third party software or hardware some such sale may be subject to additional licence terms.

3. Offer and acceptance/ Description All offers are made subject to the Client being deemed an acceptable offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No offer placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of an order is issued by Elsevier or (if earlier) Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commences performance of the Services for the Client. For all Client orders are accepted subject to availability of the ordered products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products or Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if it is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use. Personal client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. Upon violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to deliver all recipients of Products or Services from Elsevier, including all actual recipients that have not previously properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with the terms of the TC and agreed by both parties, including such things as format, printing, process design, text and size and kind of address, file and images. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising issued by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier's catalogues or brochures are issued solely for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described therein. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characterisation of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for rejecting the order or contract, as the case may be, or making any price adjustment.
