JSES Reviews, Reports & Techniques

Overview

JSES Reviews, Reports and Techniques is an open access and online-only journal that concentrates exclusively on medical, surgical, and physical research and best practice on treating injury/disease of the upper extremity, including the shoulder girdle, upper arm, and elbow. This publication is an official member of the Journal of Shoulder and Elbow Surgery (JSES) family of journals and is sponsored by eleven leading upper extremity orthopedic organizations globally. Clinically oriented and peer-reviewed, JSES Reviews, Reports, and Techniques provides an international forum for the exchange of information that focuses on clinical and basic science review articles, case reports, and novel surgical techniques.

1. Applicability
These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC").

2. Force majeure
It may be that, for any reason of any nature, including the products or services of Elsevier, its own account and use and use on behalf of any other person or entity. If Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products or Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if it is agent permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no one or more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use.

3. Intellectual property
Client acknowledges that registration of this warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediately injunctive relief requiring Client to discontinue all recipients of the Products and Services from Client, including all actual recipients that have not previously properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with descriptions of the Products and Services agreed by both parties in the relevant order, including such things as format, printing process, design and size and kind of address files and the like. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising created by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier's catalogues or brochures are issued as published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described in them. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for rejecting or returning, as the case may be, the material as received.

4. Payment
Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and use on behalf of any other person or entity. If Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products or Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if it is agent permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no one or more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use.

5. Audit
Client shall allow Publisher's authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client's premises (or other relevant premises) for the purpose of inspecting Client's facilities, books and records to verify Client's compliance with the TC.

6. Advertising & Reprints
Client shall notify Elsevier immediately if the alterations requested are unacceptable, unless such changes are due to an event of force majeure. Elsevier can also refuse to supply reprints of material that has not been published.
