North American Spine Society Journal (NASSJ)

Overview

The mission of North American Spine Society Open Access Journal (NASSJ) is to promote knowledge and advance spine care. As the open access spine journal of the North American Spine Society, NASSJ aims to facilitate the dissemination of knowledge about clinical care, research, and education more effectively and efficiently by leveraging the open access platform and electronic media interfaces. The journal has been established as a multidisciplinary, peer-reviewed, international, open access, electronic journal that publishes peer-reviewed research, critical reviews, editorials, and exchanges related to the spine surgery and spine care.

ELSEVIER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUPPLY

1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party, including the Client, relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties. These terms and conditions also apply to all future orders placed by the Client. If any of these terms and conditions are invalid, illegal, void, unenforceable or voidable, it shall to the extent of such illegality, invalidity, voidness, voidability, unenforceability or unenforceability be of no effect, and the remainder of such provision shall continue in full force and effect. Failure or delay by Elsevier in enforcing or levying any provision of these terms and conditions, or in the exercise of any right or remedy under these terms and conditions, shall not operate as a waiver of, or a modification to, or an estoppel or acquiescence by Elsevier of, any right or remedy, or shall impair Elsevier's right to enforce any provision of these terms and conditions, or to levy any right or remedy under these terms and conditions.

2. Offer and acceptance

All offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and the Client shall be deemed to be an offer to supply only. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Elsevier may at its sole discretion refuse to invoice any person who has not been previously properly identified by Elsevier. Elsevier shall commercially reasonably efforts to supply with descriptions of the Products and Services agreed by both parties in the relevant order, including such things as format, dimensions, technical design, color and of address, file types, weights and the like. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising material issued by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier’s catalogues or brochures are published or issued for the sole purpose of giving an approximate idea of the description and Services described therein. They will form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for re-printing or delivery or, as the case may be, modifying the agreed price.

3. Execution and modification of the order

Any modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget or schedule, as set out in the order acknowledgement, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier requests additional description and/or information, Elsevier shall not be liable for any delay in delivery and the Client shall bear all costs that are a result of the request. Thereafter, the Client shall bear all costs that arise from writing, the Client shall bear all costs that arise from writing, the Client shall bear all costs that arise from writing, the Client shall bear all costs that arise from writing, the Client shall bear all costs that arise.
