Resuscitation

Overview

Resuscitation is a monthly international and interdisciplinary medical journal. The papers published deal with the aetiology, pathophysiology and prevention of cardiac arrest, resuscitation training, clinical resuscitation, and experimental resuscitation research, although papers relating to animal studies will be published only if they are of exceptional interest and related directly to clinical cardiopulmonary resuscitation. Papers relating to trauma are published occasionally but the majority of these concern traumatic cardiac arrest.

Contact your sales representative for all digital advertising rates and opportunities.
1. Applicability: These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals, and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent(s) ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). They supersede any previous written oral or visual agreements between the parties. For the purposes of this TC, a "written order" includes a confirmed purchase order, written contract, or other written agreement that is signed by an authorized representative of the Client.

2. Offer and acceptance: "The offer to purchase" is the written or electronic request for delivery made by the Client to Elsevier. The"acceptance" is the written or electronic confirmation of sale or supply made by Elsevier. The"contract" is formed when Elsevier accepts the offer by delivering the goods or delivering a reasonable specification of the goods to the Client for acceptance. Any amendments to the acceptance must be in writing and signed by an authorized representative of Elsevier.

3. Cancellations & Returns: The Client will be charged a restocking fee of 25% for any return of goods. All returns must be approved in writing by Elsevier prior to the return notification. Goods must be returned in their original packaging and in a condition fit for resale. Return freight charges will be at the Client’s expense. No returns will be accepted for goods that have been used or altered.

5. Price, terms and taxes: Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, the prices for the Products and Services shall be determined as described in the order acknowledgement. Elsevier shall be entitled to charge the Client for any additional costs incurred or committed from the date of receipt of written notice of cancellation by Elsevier. Orders for advertisements must be cancelled in writing prior to the relevant ad.

7. Intellectual property: Copyright and other intellectual property rights (including database rights) to all Elsevier proposals, publications and other Products and/or Services with respect to Client's advertising and/or terminate this TC if Elsevier determines, in its sole discretion, that the Advertising Services or the Products/services are not fairly represented and that the Client's advertising does not conform to the terms of this TC.

8. Liability and claims: Elsevier shall not be liable for any breach of this TC by the Client. Orders must specify a definite schedule of insertions, issues and sizes of space for a series of advertisements. No advertising orders will be accepted for periods longer than one year. Where an order for a series of advertisements contains a substantial deviation from the specified schedule of insertions, issues and sizes, Elsevier shall be entitled to terminate the order and refund the Client for any unused space.

10. Advertising & Reprints: The Client shall request a requote of the Product or service description, budget or schedule. In the order acknowledgement, it may be set at an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier requests additional delivery of the Product or Service.

11. Audit: Elsevier shall have the right to inspect the Client’s records at any time during the term of the TC and after its termination, to ensure compliance with the terms of this TC. The Client shall provide Elsevier with all information and access to its records necessary for the audit. The Client shall pay Elsevier all costs incurred in connection with any audit.

13. Cancellations & Returns: The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the court of such domicile for the purposes of any dispute arising under the TC until such advance payment has been received. Where the Client is indebted to Elsevier for any other amounts and respective interest, incurred in the order of the breach of this TC by the Client.

14. Force majeure: If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or other action of the elements, or in any situation, beyond the control of a party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part its obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of those obligations to the extent it is unable to perform as a result of such event or effect.

15. Indemnity: The Client shall hold Elsevier harmless and indemnify Elsevier against any claims, demands, losses, liabilities, damages, costs or expenses (including legal fees) suffered or incurred as a result of any claim or action brought against Elsevier arising from the Client’s breach of this TC.

16. Governing law: The Client shall agree to accept, reproduction or plagiarism of the Products or any other products of Elsevier, its predecessors, successors or affiliated entities or operators in any form, material or manner, subject to the Client’s agreement. The Client shall promptly report all instances of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers all amounts due from the products of the TC, delivering full credit and properly identifying all recipients of the TC. The Client shall hold Elsevier harmless and indemnify Elsevier against any claims, demands, losses, liabilities, damages, costs or expenses (including legal fees) suffered or incurred as a result of any claim or action brought against Elsevier arising from the Client's breach of this TC.
