Immuno-Oncology and Technology

Overview

Immuno-Oncology and Technology (IOTECH) is sister journal to Annals of Oncology and ESMO Open and the most recent addition to the European Society for Medical Oncology's portfolio of world-class journals. By publishing high quality original research articles, reviews, perspectives, technology explained papers, letters to the editor and editorials, IOTECH aspires to provide a forum for today's leaders in the field of Immuno-Oncology.

ELSEVIER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUPPLY

1. Applicability: These terms and conditions apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made by or on behalf of Elsevier ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and any and all third party or its affiliates ("the Third Party"). The Client will be considered to be a consumer if it is purchasing Products or Services for the sole purpose of consumption or use as an employee or officer of a government agency or any other government owned, operated, or controlled entity. The Third Party will make reasonable efforts to ensure that these terms and conditions are also clearly understood by the Client. The Client consents to and agrees to these terms and conditions and the Third Party shall be entitled to rely on the Client's consent and agreement to the extent of such illegality, invalidity, voidness, voidability, or unenforceability. The Client agrees that if any part of these terms and conditions is found to be void or unenforceable, such part shall be deemed severable and the remainder of such provisions will be given effect to the fullest extent permitted by law. Failure or delay in enforcing any provision of any of the TCs will not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under the TCs.

2. Offer and acceptance: (a) All orders for the products or Services from the Client to Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer to Elsevier at the price and in the quantities as specified in the order. (b) Elsevier shall be deemed to accept any order placed by the Client by delivering the Products or Services to the Client at or near the price and in the quantities specified. All orders are subject to availability of the Products and Services. (c) Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, the Client shall not be entitled to cancel or modify any order for the Products or Services after it has been accepted by Elsevier.

3. Delivery: (a) Delivery of Products or Services shall be made to the Client at the address specified in the Client's order or in the case of goods for resale, to the address at which the Customer's goods are stocked. (b) Where delivery of the Products or Services is to be made to a place other than the Client's address, the Client shall be responsible for obtaining any necessary import licenses or other consents and for payment of all taxes and charges which may be payable in connection with the export or import of the Goods. (c) If delivery is not made within the time specified or if any part of the Products or Services is not delivered within such time, Elsevier shall not be liable to the Client for any loss or damage sustained by the Client in consequence of such delay, unless it is found by a court of competent jurisdiction that Elsevier was at fault for such delay. (d) If the Client does not pay the price of the Products or Services within the time specified, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (e) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (f) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (g) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (h) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (i) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (j) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (k) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (l) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (m) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (n) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (o) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (p) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (q) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (r) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (s) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (t) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (u) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (v) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (w) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (x) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (y) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (z) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law. (aa) If the Client is at fault for any delay in the delivery of the Products or Services, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount from the time payment was due at a rate not exceeding the maximum permitted by law.
