1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all proposals, offers and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (“the Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (the “Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the “TC”). They supersede any previous understanding and agreement, written or oral, between the parties. The general terms and conditions of business are those of Elsevier, unless the parties agree otherwise in writing. Any variation to the TC shall be in writing and signed by an authorized officer of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will be taken to exclude or limit Elsevier’s Liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.

2. Offer and acceptance/Description

No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until written acknowledgement of a order is issued by Elsevier or [Elsevier] delivers the products or issues the invoice to the Client. The order is deemed to be accepted by Elsevier in accordance with the relevant customs and procedures of Elsevier. For the avoidance of doubt, an order will not be accepted if the total value of the order is less than €500. Any variation to the TC shall be in writing and signed by an authorized officer of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will be taken to exclude or limit Elsevier’s Liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.

3. Cancellations & Returns

13. Cancellations & Returns

The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Elsevier reserves the right to cancel any order if it is notified by any court, tribunal or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be wholly or partly illegal, invalid, void, or unenforceable, or if, by any court, tribunal or administrative body of competent jurisdiction, it is notified that any such order is illegal, invalid, void, or unenforceable.

4. Liability and claims

8. Liability and claims

Nothing in the TC shall be construed as creating an obligation to indemnify the other party against the other party’s own losses or liabilities, or the other party’s own negligence or willful intent or the negligence of its employees or others for whom the party is legally responsible. Neither party shall be liable for indirect or consequential loss, or damage, or for any loss resulting from any delay in delivery or non-compliance with any other matter or business transacted by or on behalf of Elsevier, or for any act or omission in connection with any matter or business transacted by or on behalf of Elsevier.

5. Payment

5. Payment

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency in force at the time of receipt of the invoice. Invoices will not be accepted in currencies other than those agreed in writing. The Client shall pay any costs incurred or committed by Elsevier in connection with the fulfilment of its obligations under the TC, whether or not such costs or amounts have been incurred or committed.

6. Distribution

6. Distribution

The Client shall at all times during the term strictly comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, codes, regulations, and rules or regulations or industry codes or any rights of any third parties including, but not limited to, infringement rights of any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of the sale of the Products supplied by Elsevier, reflecting full credit control and safely storing all of its own losses resulting from any uncollected amounts. Delays or failures in obtaining such payments will not affect Elsevier’s obligations to pay the Client in accordance with the TC.

7. Force majeure

9. Force majeure

If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or other action of the elements, war, terrorism, embargo, suspension of hostilities, or appropriation or other causes beyond the control of a party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part, under this Agreement, such party shall give written notice of such delay to the other party and the period of such delay shall be extended proportionately. Any modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget or schedule, as set out in the order acknowledgement, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier delivers additional quantities of products or services in excess of the quantities set out in the order acknowledgement, Elsevier shall be entitled to an additional payment of up to 10% of the original order price.
