2. Applicability These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the "Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). The TC supersedes any previous terms and conditions. For the purposes of the TC, Elsevier shall mean the company within the Elsevier group that is providing the Products or Services as set out on the invoice or otherwise in writing to the Client. The "Products" mean the works of Elsevier, including the contents, editing and layout of them, the "Services" mean the activities, facilities and support services of Elsevier. The Client shall mean the person, firm or company purchasing the Products and/or Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the agent is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no one more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use.

3. Execution and modification of the order Any modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget or schedule, as set out in the order acknowledgment, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional Services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall act in the name of, to the account of, and at the risk of the Client. All dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/performances of the Products or Services are intended to be an estimate and time for delivery/performance shall not be made of the essence by notice. If no dates so specified, delivery/performance shall be within a reasonable time.

4. Prices, taxes and currencies Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products or Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the agent is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no one more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use.

5. Payment Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency invoiced. Late charge for non-payment in full shall accrue on the full amount of any invoice from the date of its invoice date to the date of full payment, in accordance with the applicable law of the country where the TC was entered into or, if no country is specifically stated, the law of the country where the Client’s principal place of business is located. The Client’s obligation to pay in full shall be unaffected by, among other things, a dispute with Elsevier in respect of any terms or conditions of an invoice, without prejudice to the Client’s rights under any provision of consumer law. If the Client disputes any item(s) of an invoice, the Client shall promptly notify Elsevier of such dispute in writing and the Client undertakes to make full payment of all undisputed items. If any dispute is not resolved within thirty (30) days of the dispute notice, the dispute shall be resolved in accordance with the Applicable Laws.

6. Distribution The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products or services of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in those activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of its sales of the Products, exercising full credit control and solely bearing all of its own losses resulting from any uncollected amounts. Delay or failure in obtaining such payments will not affect the Client’s obligation to make payments to Elsevier under clause 1.

7. Intellectual property Copyright and other intellectual property rights in the Products and Services, Elsevier proposals, publications or other Products or Services shall remain with Elsevier unless agreed otherwise in writing. The rights granted by Elsevier are restricted to the Client and may not be assigned, transferred or sublicensed without the prior written permission of Elsevier. Elsevier and/or its licensors reserve the right to sell, license or dispose of any Other Products or Services at any time, without prior notice to the Client. The Client shall not use in any manner or for any purpose any Other Products or Services except as permitted under the TC.

8. Liability and claims The TC MAXIMUM EXCEPTED LIMITATION FOR ALL LOSSES WHICH MAY BE CAUSED BY THE USE OF THIS TC OR ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY, CONDITION OR OTHER TERM, ANY REPRESENTATION OR ANY KIN OF ANY IMPERFECTIONS IMPUTABLE TO IT SHALL IN ANY EVENT BE LIMITED TO THE INVOICE VALUE OF THE PART OF THE TC TO WHICH THE LIABILITY ARISES. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY RELEVANT LAWS ELSEVIER EXCLUDES ANY LIABILITY FOR BREACH OF ANY IMPLIED OR EXPRESS WARRANTY OR IMPLIED OR STATUTORY RIGHTS WHERE IT IS ACTING AS A CONSUMER. The parties agree that the United Nations International Conventions for the International Sale of Goods shall not apply to this TC or the interpretation or enforcement thereof. The Client has entered into this TC in the knowledge that the liability of Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with the law of the country where the TC was entered into or, if no country is specifically stated, the law of the country where the Client’s principal place of business is located.

9. Force majeure If the alterations requested are unacceptable, unless such changes are due to an event of force majeure. Elsevier can terminate the agreement with respect to the remaining portion of the order. In the event that Elsevier rejects any offer to print the Products which the Client has not been able to publish within the applicable terms specified by Elsevier, the Client shall be entitled to reject the order for reprints of material which has not been published. Elsevier can calculate the price for the actual volume at the end of the applicable year at a reduced discount and the Client shall be entitled to receive a credit in respect of the unrecoverable costs which are directly related to the promotion, demonstration or explanation of Products or Services or the execution or performance of a contract provided that such payments are permissible under the Applicable Laws. The Client further agrees that he/she will not accept any payments from any person as an inducement or reward for any act or forbearance or in connection with any matter or business transacted by or on behalf of Elsevier. The Client and Elsevier have entered into this TC in the knowledge that the liability of the Client is to be limited in accordance with the law of the country where the TC was entered into or, if no country is specifically stated, the law of the country where the Client’s principal place of business is located. The Client has entered into this TC in the knowledge that the liability of Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with the law of the country where the TC was entered into or, if no country is specifically stated, the law of the country where the Client’s principal place of business is located. The Client has entered into this TC in the knowledge that the liability of Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with the law of the country where the TC was entered into or, if no country is specifically stated, the law of the country where the Client’s principal place of business is located.

10. General The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that country.

11. Dispute resolution In the event of a dispute between the Client and Elsevier, the Client acknowledges that it is not entitled to any remedy beyond the remedies set out in this TC. Any such dispute shall be resolved in accordance with the law of the country where the TC was entered into or, if no country is specifically stated, the law of the country where the Client’s principal place of business is located.

12. Audit Client shall allow Publisher’s authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client’s premises (or any other relevant premises) for the purpose of inspecting Client’s facilities, books and records to verify compliance with the TC. If any such inspection reveals any breach of the provisions of this TC, Elsevier shall have the right to terminate the TC at any time and take possession of the Products and Services involved.

13. Reference to a Court of Law In any event, any dispute shall be decided by a court of law in the country where the TC was entered into or, if no country is specifically stated, the law of the country where the Client’s principal place of business is located.

14. General Any amendments to these terms and conditions shall not be effective unless agreed by Elsevier in writing and signed by an authorized signatory of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation. Where products are sold to the Client that contain third party software or other such software the same may be subject to additional license terms.
