1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the “Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (“the Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the “TC”). They supersede any previous terms and conditions. For the purposes of the TC, “Elsevier” shall mean the company within the Elsevier group that is providing the Products or Services as set out on the invoice or any other document. All TCs provided in electronic format shall be deemed to include the provisions of this TC and any other data, policies, or procedure set out in the TCs.

2. General

Elsevier shall have the right to assign, sub-license, transfer or otherwise distribute all or part of the Products or Services to any other person or entity. The Client shall not assign, sub-license, transfer or otherwise distribute or disclose the Products or Services to any third party without the prior written permission of Elsevier. Orders may be cancelled at any time prior to delivery and/or performance, at Elsevier’s sole discretion. The Client shall allow Publisher’s authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client’s premises (or to other relevant premises) for the purpose of inspecting Client’s facilities, books and records to verify the accuracy of any advertising supplied by the Client. Elsevier may terminate this TC at any time in the event of a breach of this TC by the Client. Orders must specify a definite schedule of insertions, issues, or sizes of space for a specific advertisement. Two or more advertisers are not permitted to use space under the same order. No advertising orders will be accepted for periods longer than one year. Where an order for a series of advertisements has been given a discounted rate for volume by Elsevier, the Client shall be entitled to re-calculate the price for the actual volume at the end of the applicable year at a reduced discount and the Client shall be responsible for any order cancellation fees that are not consistent with Elsevier’s standards. In addition, Elsevier shall have the right, at any time, to remove any advertisement or portion thereof that is not appropriate.

3. Prices, taxes and currencies

Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If the Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the agent is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for valid personal use. Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. Upon any violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to deliver all receipts of Products or Services from Client, including all actual records that have not been previously properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with all of the Products and Services agreed by both the parties in the relevant order, including such things as format, printing, design, production and quality of finished product, design and style of print, type size, type face, quality and appearance of paper, binding and cover, and other matters that are not subject to written agreement. Claims for shortages or overages of the Products or Services shall be promptly made in writing by the Client to Elsevier within thirty (30) days after the receipt of the Products or Services, and no claims for shortages or overages shall be entertained after the thirty (30) day period from the receipt of the Products or Services. Elsevier shall make a reasonable effort to correct any shortage or overage. If the Products or Services do not conform to the terms of the TC, the Client shall provide Elsevier notice thereof within thirty (30) days after receipt of the Products or Services, and no claim for non-conformance shall be entertained after the thirty (30) day period from the receipt of the Products or Services. Elsevier has the right to reject any advertising order or portion thereof that is not appropriate.
