applicability of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the location of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services for such matters. The English language shall be used in such proceedings.

2. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the “Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (“the Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the “TC”). All such proposals, orders and agreements will be governed by the terms and conditions of the TC and any other terms and conditions of delivery agreed by Elsevier in writing.

3. Execution and modification of the order

Any modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget or schedule, as set out in the order acknowledgement, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional Services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall act as the name of, and to the account of, and at the risk of the Client. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/performance of the Products and Services are intended to be an estimate and time for delivery/performance shall not be made of the essence by notice. If no dates so specified, delivery/performance will be at Elsevier’s discretion.

4. Prices, terms and currency

Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, prices and terms for the Products and Services shall be set out in Elsevier’s current price list (whether print or online). All such price lists shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, transport and insurance charges unless otherwise agreed in writing, and shall be exclusive of any taxes, import duties or other fees imposed on the sale or import of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as applicable. Where applicable, client shall provide to Elsevier Client’s VAT registration number or other evidence of tax exemption to Elsevier at the time of placing an order. If, under the rules of the territory in which Client is selling the Products, the Client is required to withhold any tax on the price before making payment to Elsevier, the Client shall make such withholding or tax payment as required.

5. Payment

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency invoiced. Time for payment shall be of the essence. Elsevier may set any overdue limits for any Client account and shall be entitled to refuse to supply any Client who has exceeded its current credit limit. Legal and/or effective title in any tangible Products supplied by Elsevier to the Client shall remain with Elsevier until Elsevier has received in full (net) all payments due for the Products and all other sums which are or become due by the Client to Elsevier from any account or any other source. For all Products other than printed matter and unless the Client has a valid court order requiring an amount equal to such deduction to be paid by Elsevier to the Client, Elsevier shall be entitled to withhold any payment or credit of any nature, and set off any dispute in respect of any sums due to the Client.

6. Intellectual property

Copyright and other intellectual property rights in all Elsevier publications, products or Services (including data, software and any other content) are owned by Elsevier. Except to the extent permitted by Law, no reproduction, distribution, adaptation, translation, performance, broadcast or other use of the Products or Services is permitted without the prior written permission of Elsevier. The Client is granted a non-exhaustive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable license to use the Products or Services for the Client’s business purposes only in strict accordance with these terms and conditions. The Client’s use of the Products or Services is subject to the applicable licenses and guidelines of Elsevier in accordance with the terms of the agreement. Elsevier retains all rights, title and interest in the Products and Services and the Client acknowledges that Elsevier retains such rights, title and interest in the Products and Services.

7. General

In the event that any provision of the TC is found to be invalid or unenforceable, that provision will be severed and the remaining provisions of the TC shall continue in full force and effect. Failure or delay by Elsevier in enforcing or partially enforcing any provision (or rescission of any breach) of the TC shall not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under the TC.
