Clinical Simulation in Nursing

Overview

Clinical Simulation in Nursing (CSN) is an international, peer-reviewed journal published online monthly. CSN is the official journal of the International Nursing Association for Clinical Simulation & Learning (INACSL) and reflects the mission of INACSL to advance the science of healthcare simulation.

The journal accepts the following types of manuscripts:

— Research articles and literature reviews (e.g. systematic, scoping, umbrella, integrative, etc.) about simulation

— Innovative teaching/learning strategies using simulation

— Articles updating guidelines, regulations, and legislative policies that impact simulation

— Leadership for simulation

— Simulation operations

— Clinical and academic uses of simulation

14. General

Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Elsevier represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products or Services from the Client on its own behalf and not on behalf of any third party. No assignment, delegation or transfer of the Client’s rights or obligations under the TC shall be permitted without Elsevier’s prior written consent. If the assignment is permitted, such consent will be given if and only if the Client has (i) obtained a new or increased credit limit from Elsevier for the assignment in question exceeding the credit limit of the Client as in effect immediately prior to the assignment (ii) paid Elsevier the fee Elsevier determines is necessary to cover the costs Elsevier incurs in connection with the assignment, and (iii) agreed in writing to be responsible for all of Elsevier’s liabilities under the TC arising thereafter.

13. Cancellations & Returns

Orders for advertisements must be cancelled in writing prior to the relevant ad run. The Client acknowledges that the liability of Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with these terms and conditions and the Client agrees that its limited liability shall not apply to this TC or the interpretation or enforcement thereof. The Client has entered into this TC in reliance upon (i) full disclosure by Elsevier of the nature of the reservation of title in the Products or Services as set out on the Elsevier order acknowledgement, or (ii) the Client’s knowledge that the liability of Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with these terms and conditions and the Client agrees that its limited liability shall not apply to this TC or the interpretation or enforcement thereof. The Client acknowledges that the Client shall not be entitled to any damages or compensatory relief of any kind on account of any breach of this representation and warranty.

7. Intellectual property

Orders for the Products or Services must be placed in accordance with the Client’s order and Client must ensure that its obligations under the TC are fulfilled.

6. Distribution

7.1. The Client shall be solely responsible for collecting from its customers the amount due in respect of the sale of the Product or Service, retaining control of the sale and sale and to be restated in full as required. The Client shall require that any buyer who has exceeded its credit limit by making such a sale will be entitled to recover payment for the copies of the Product notwithstanding that the amount of the Product or Service from Elsevier has not passed from Elsevier. For the avoidance of doubt no intellectual property right in Products or Services shall transfer to the Client for the products or services from Elsevier for the client's sole and exclusive use of any re-issued or otherwise.

5. Prices, terms and conditions

The Client shall allow Publisher’s authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client’s premises (or any other part of its business) for the purpose of inspecting Client’s facilities, books and records to verify Client’s compliance with the TC.

3. Execution and modification of the order

The Client agrees to (or on behalf of the Client) to resell the Products before ownership has passed to it provided that any sale shall be effects in the ordinary course of the Client’s business at full market value and any such sale shall be a sale of the Client’s property in full as required by law.

2. Offer and acceptance/ Description

Any modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget or schedule, as set out in the order acknowledgement, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule of advertisements. If the Client does not receive the Client’s VAT registration number or other evidence of tax exemption to Elsevier at the time of placing its order. If, under the laws or regulations of the territory in which the Client is selling the products, the Client is required to notify at any time of an invoice to the Client or issue an invoice to the Client, the Client shall be entitled to demand payment in full, unless the Client’s agreement to the TC by Client. The Client shall be allowed reasonable time to have access to Client’s premises (or any other part of its business) for the purpose of inspecting Client’s facilities, books and records to verify Client’s compliance with the TC.

1. Applicability
