ELSEVIER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUPPLY

1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all proposals, offers and communications made by and to any third party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). They supersede any previous agreements or communications between the parties. For the purposes of this TC, Elsevier shall mean the company named in the Elsevier order or service as set out in the Elsevier order acknowledgement or invoice. Where general terms and conditions of business are proposed by the Client, these shall not apply and the TC shall prevail. Any variation to the TC and any representations about the Products and Services shall have no effect unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorised signature of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.

2. Offer and acceptance/Descriptions

Each order acknowledgement/Description shall be for the sole use of the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until within a reasonable time of order received by Elsevier or Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or confirms performance of the Services for the Client. All product orders are accepted subject to availability of the ordered Products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products from Elsevier for its own account and not on behalf of and/or for the benefit of any other person or entity. If the Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for the client's account and not on behalf of any other person or entity. The Client consents to the assessment of the Client's account and payment for all invoices whether the account is settled in full or in part.

3. Execution and modification of the order

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the order acknowledgement, it may be an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier's discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier requests additional information, the Client must provide such information within such a time frame as reasonably requested by Elsevier, and Elsevier shall not be responsible for any delay in shipment or delivery for which the Client is responsible.

4. Prices, taxes and services

Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing the prices for the Products and Services are set out in Elsevier's current price list (whether on paper or online). All such prices shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, transport and insurance charges unless otherwise agreed in writing, and shall be exclusive of all, taxes, duties or other levies imposed on the sale of or supply of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as appropriate. Where applicable, Elsevier shall provide to Elsevier's VAT registration number or registration certificate number. All prices quoted are stated as net prices excluding VAT (Value Added Tax). The Client consents to the assessment of the Client's account and payment for all invoices whether the account is settled in full or in part.

5. Payment

Payment does not include a payment of reasonable and bona fide expenditures, such as travel or lodging expenses, which are necessary for the performance of the order. Payment must be made in full at the time of the order. Check payments are solely at the Client's risk. If payment is not made within the time stated, Elsevier may charge the Client interest at the rate of 1% per month or, if the Client wishes to dispute an invoice, (ii) refund to Client a pro rata portion of the fee which Client has paid to Elsevier for display of the Advertising Content in the event of a breach of this TC by Client. Orders must specify a definite schedule of insertions, issues and sizes of space for a complete series. Where no dates are so specified, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge the full cost of the space closing date, but in the event that any cancellations are made after such date, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge the full cost of the space closing date.

6. Distribution

The Client that is purchasing, reproduction or reproduction of the Products or any other products of Elsevier on its behalf, shall directly or indirectly facilitate or permit any other party to engage in these activities. The Client consents to the assessment of the Client's account and payment for all invoices whether the account is settled in full or in part.

7. Intellectual property

Copyright and other intellectual property rights to all Elsevier proposals, publications and other Products are reserved with Elsevier unless agreed otherwise in writing. The rights granted by Elsevier are restricted to use solely by the Client and may not be assigned, transferred or sublicensed without the prior written permission of Elsevier. The rights granted by Elsevier are non-exclusive and for the purpose expressly agreed upon. Any other use shall require the prior written permission of Elsevier. The Client shall not acquire any intellectual property rights in the Products. No part of the Elsevier proposals, publications or Products may be reprinted, translated, adapted or reproduced, whether electronically, mechanically, by photocopying, recording or in any other manner or form, without the specific prior written permission of Elsevier.

8. Liability and claims

(a) Elsevier is not liable for anything following the order which may be due to any breach of ethics or any implied warranty, condition or representation, or any other term, representation or any act of Elsevier done in the operation of its business, in breach of contract, breach of statutory duty or in any other way (whether arising in contract, tort (including negligence), or otherwise). If Elsevier is found by a court of law, or under any applicable law, rules, industry codes, regulation or generally prevailing customs and practice, to be in breach of the duties stated herein, the Client agrees to indemnify Elsevier and their servants, officers and employees, against all liabilities, costs, expenses and any other loss, including legal fees and expenses incurred by Elsevier, for any claim (whether by way of action, counterclaim or otherwise) arising out of or in connection with the Products, the Services, or any breach of this TC by the Client or the Client's servants, officers or employees.

(b) Nothing in the TC shall be construed as creating an obligation to indemnify the other party against the other party's own obligations. NO OTHER LOSS IMPUTABLE TO IT SHALL IN ANY EVENT BE LIMITED TO THE INVOICE VALUE OF THE PART OF THE PRODUCED MATERIALS OR SERVICES WHICH WERE THE SUBJECT OF THE BREACH OF SUCH A PROMISE OR WARRANTY.

9. Force majeure

In the event of a force majeure, Elsevier may terminate this TC by written notice. Elsevier may terminate this TC by reason of force majeure, including (without limitation) if the Client is in breach of any of its obligations under this TC. Elsevier may terminate this TC where there is a failure or delay by the Client in the performance of any of its obligations under this TC. Elsevier shall be entitled to charge the Client for the Products or Services which have been produced or delivered to the Client up to the time of such termination.

10. Advertising & Reprints

The Client shall have the non-exclusive right to withdraw its Advertising Content from Elsevier without further notice or payment. Payment terms for reprints will be agreed in writing. All reprints will be printed and delivered to the Client within a reasonable time.

11. Audit

The Client agrees to the assessment of the Client's account and payment for all invoices whether the account is settled in full or in part. The Client shall not enter into any agreement or make any representations, warranties or agreements which may be in default or otherwise in breach of this TC or any of any obligations under this TC and which are set out in any agreement executed between the Client and Elsevier, or which are in breach of this TC or any obligations under this TC and will not enter into any agreement which the Client reasonably believes is not otherwise in compliance with all of the Client's obligations under this TC.
