Overview

Since its establishment in 2003, The Surgeon has established itself as one of the leading multidisciplinary surgical titles, both in print and online. The Surgeon is published for the worldwide surgical and dental communities. The goal of the Journal is to achieve wider national and international recognition, through a commitment to excellence in original research. In addition, both Colleges see the Journal as an important educational service, and consequently there is a particular focus on post-graduate development. Much of our educational role will continue to be achieved through publishing expanded review articles by leaders in their field.

2. Applicability These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the "Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). Any standard terms and conditions of purchase of the Client and/or the remainder of such provision shall continue in full force and effect. Failure or delay by Elsevier in delivering any such product (or prosecuting any breach) of the TC will not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under the TC. The Client shall be solely responsible for its own costs for completing any foreign-exchange-related transactions in the said territory that are necessary to pay for the Products and/or Services.

3. Prices, taxes and currencies Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, the Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If the Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if it is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for valid personal use. Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty shall cause irrevocable harm to Elsevier. Upon any violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to deliver all records of all activities relating to the Clients’ transactions with Elsevier, including all account records that have not previously been properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with the regulations and laws and to deliver any products to the Client at all times during the term strictly in accordance with the provisions of the TC of and to achieve such compliance.

4. Prices, taxes and currencies

5. Payment Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be made thirty (30) days in advance of the invoice date in the currency invoiced. Time for payment shall be of the essence. Elsevier may set any credit limits for any Client account and shall be entitled to refuse to supply any Client who has exceeded its current credit limit. Legal and beneficial title in any tangible Products supplied by Elsevier to the Client shall remain with Elsevier until Elsevier has received in full (i) the relevant cleared funds; (ii) the full purchase price of Products sold and delivered; and (iii) all sums actually and finally due and payable to Elsevier under the TC including any amounts which become due and payable to Elsevier as a result of any cancellation or return of Products. The Client shall not be entitled to any receipt of payment of these taxes to appropriate taxing authorities. All financial transactions must be settled in the currency of the applicable Elsevier invoice. The Client shall be solely responsible for its own costs for completing any foreign-exchange-related transactions in the said territory that are necessary to pay for the Products and/or Services.

6. Distribution The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products or services of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in those activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or Services by any third party. The Client shall be solely responsible for collecting from its customers any sums due in respect of its sales of the Products, exercising full credit control and solely bearing all of its own losses resulting from any uncollected amounts. Delay or failure in obtaining such payments will not affect the Client’s obligation to make payments to Elsevier under these terms.

7. Intellectual property

8. Liability and claims TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ELSEVIER DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES, REPRESENTATIONS AND CONDITIONS (whether express, statutory or implied) with regard to the Products and/or Services, including for example, any condition or warranty of quality, reliability, fitness for a particular purpose or non-infringement of any third party rights. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, the Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If the Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if it is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for valid personal use. Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty shall cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or other action of the elements, accidents, war or telecommunications failure, customs delays, governmental restrictions or appropriation or other causes beyond the control of a party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part in its obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of those obligations to the extent it is thereby unable to perform, and such failure to perform shall not make such party liable to any other party. The subject matter of this TC shall be assigned, transferred or sublicensed without the prior written permission of Elsevier. The rights granted by Elsevier are non-exclusive and for the purpose expressly agreed upon. Any other use shall be the prior written permission of Elsevier. The Client shall not acquire any intellectual property rights in the Products. No part of the Elsevier proposals, publications or products may be stored in any automated data file and/or reproduced, whether electronically, mechanically, by photostating, recording or in any other manner or form, without the specific prior written permission of Elsevier.
