Travel Medicine and Infectious Diseases

Overview

Travel Medicine and Infectious Disease publishes original papers, reviews and consensus papers on all aspects of travel medicine and infectious disease. Focus areas include epidemiology and surveillance of travel-related illness, vaccine-preventable disease, malaria prevention and treatment, travellers' diarrhoea, migrant health, wilderness and expedition medicine, sports, aviation and maritime medicine, environmental and psychological hazards of travel, global policy/regulations for disease prevention and control and practical clinical issues for travel and tropical medicine practitioners. The journal also covers areas of controversy and debate in travel medicine particularly where this may inform guidelines and policy pertinent to travel medicine and the prevention of infectious disease.

Travel Medicine and Infectious Disease aims to publish cutting edge papers and offers a fast peer-review process with early on-line publication of accepted manuscripts.

1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the “Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (“the Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order confirmation, shall govern the supply of the Products and/or Services to the Client. Each order for the Products and Services by the Client from Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgment of order is issued by Elsevier or (if earlier) Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commences performance of the Services for the Client. For all products and/or Services ordered by the Client, Elsevier reserves the right to alter the terms and conditions of the TC as may be reasonably necessary or desirable. The TC may be varied or amended from time to time by written notice to the Client in respect of future sales of Products and/or Services to the Client.

2. Offer and acceptance/ Description

Each order for the Products and Services from Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgment of order is issued by Elsevier or (if earlier) Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commences performance of the Services for the Client. For all products and/or Services ordered by the Client, Elsevier reserves the right to alter the terms and conditions of the TC as may be reasonably necessary or desirable. The TC may be varied or amended from time to time by written notice to the Client in respect of future sales of Products and/or Services to the Client.

3. Execution and modification of the order

Any modifications to the agreed product or service proposal, budget, schedule or budget are not in the order acknowledged, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional Services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall act in the name of, to the account of, and at the risk of the Client. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/performance of the Products and Services are intended to be an estimate and for performance/delivery may not be made of the essence of the notice. If no dates are so specified, delivery/performance will be at the sole discretion of Elsevier.

4. Prices, taxes and currency

Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing the prices for the Products and Services shall be the fees set out in Elsevier’s current price list whether print or online. All such prices shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, insurance, insurance and transport and insurance charges unless otherwise agreed in writing, and shall also be exclusive of any taxes, import duties or other levies imposed on the sale or import of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as applicable. Where appropriate, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge Client for any taxes or other charges incurred by Elsevier in respect of the supply of the Products or Services to the Client or the Client’s employees, officers or agents.

5. Payment

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the date of invoice. Time for payment shall be the essence. Elsevier may set any credit limits for any Client account and shall be entitled to refuse to supply any Client who has exceeded its current credit limit. Legal and title benefit in any tangible Products supplied by Elsevier to the Client shall remain with Elsevier until the Client has received in full (i) all amounts due for all Products and Services and (ii) all amounts due which are or which become due to Elsevier from the Client on account of any other transaction.

6. Liability and claims

TC TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ELSEVIER DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES AND REPRESENTATIONS AND EXPRESSLY EXCLUDES ANY LIABILITY FOR BREACH OF ANY IMPLIED OR EXPRESS WARRANTY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. NOTHING IN THIS CONTRACT SHALL LIMIT THE CLIENT’S EXISTING LEGAL OR STATUTORY RIGHTS WHERE IT IS ACTING AS A CONSUMER. The parties agree that the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods shall not apply to this TC or the interpretation or enforcement thereof. The Client has entered into this TC in the knowledge that the liability of Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with these terms and conditions and the charges have been agreed accordingly. The Client acknowledges that a higher price would be payable for the Products or Services but for such limitations.

7. Force majeure

If, by reason of labor dispute, strike, lock-out, inability to obtain labor, fire or other action of the elements, accidents, war or telecommunications failure, customs delays, governmental restrictions or appropriation or other cause beyond the control of a party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part its obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of those obligations to the extent it is thereby unable to perform, and such inability to perform shall not make such party liable to any other party. The party subject to an event of force majeure shall use good faith efforts to continue performance of the TC in as close to as possible the provisions of the TC and to avoid the effects of such event to the extent possible.

9. Copyright

Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. Upon any breach of this representation and warranty Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to discontinue all receipts of Products and Services from Elsevier, including all actual products that have not been previously properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with descriptions of the Products and Services agreed by both parties in the relevant order, including such things as format, printing, processes, technical design, size and kind of address, weights and the like. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising issued by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier’s catalogues or brochures are issued as published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described in them. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design character of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for replacement of any such work, as the case may be, unless the said price.
