2. Applicability
These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). They supersede any previous supply terms and conditions. For the purposes of the TC, Elsevier shall mean the company within the Elsevier group that is providing the Products or Services as set out on the order acknowledgement. Any relevant definitions in the TC shall have the meanings assigned to them in the TC and any other definitions and general terms and conditions in any order acknowledgement or other relevant document.

3. Execution and modification of the order
Each modification to the agreed product or service description, budget or schedule, as set out in the order acknowledgement, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier's discretion.

4. Prices, taxes and currencies
Any modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget or schedule, as set out in the order acknowledgement, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier's discretion.

5. Payment
Failure or delay by Elsevier in seeking to enforce any provision (or prosecuting any breach) of the TC will not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under the TC.

6. Distribution
The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products or Services of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in those activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The rights granted to the Client are solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of its sales of the Products, exercising full control and solely bearing all of its losses from any uncollected amounts. Delays or failures in obtaining such payments will not relieve the Client of its obligation to make payments to Elsevier under clause 8.

7. Intellectual property
The Client may use the Products only for the purpose for which they are supplied and in the manner described in the Elsevier proposals, publications or Products. The Client shall not make, use, sell, distribute or otherwise exploit the Products, any part of the Elsevier proposals, publications or Products or any part of the Services without the express written consent of Elsevier.

8. Liability and claims
The Client acknowledges that high price would be payable for the Products or Services but for such limitations.

9. Force majeure
If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, riots, or inability to obtain labor, materials, fire or other action of the elements, accidents, power or telecommunications failure, customs delays, governmental restrictions or appropriation or any other cause beyond the control of a party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part its obligations set out in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of those obligations to the extent it is thereby unable to perform, and such inability to perform shall not make such party liable to any other party. The party subject to an event of force majeure shall use good faith efforts to perform the obligations of the TC as close as possible with the provisions of the TC and to avoid the effects of such event to the extent possible.

10. Advertising & Reprints
Client is solely responsible for ensuring proposed advertising copy is received at Elsevier in electronic form before the requested deadline specified in the order acknowledgement. Any advertising copy sent in electronic form that contains any trademarks, trade names, or product names that are not owned by the Client or its assigns may be rejected. If the Client chooses to submit advertising copy in electronic form, Elsevier reserves the right to edit the electronic copy to ensure that it meets Elsevier's specifications and standards. Any advertising copy that does not meet Elsevier's specifications and standards will not be accepted for publication. The Client shall be responsible for the quality of the advertising copy submitted. Elsevier reserves the right to refuse any advertising content for any reason, including but not limited to, infringement, misrepresentation, or any other violation of applicable laws or regulations. The Client shall be solely responsible for ensuring that all advertising copy submitted is original and does not infringe upon any copyright, patent, trademark, trade secret, music, image, or other proprietary right or property right.

11. Audit
If Elsevier believes that the Client has exceeded its current credit limit. Legal and beneficial title in any tangible Products supplied by Elsevier shall be at the Client's risk as from delivery. The Client shall make all payments due under the TC without any deduction whether by way of set-off, discount, abatement or otherwise unless the Client has a valid court order requiring an amount equal to such deduction to be paid to the Client from Elsevier. From the date of the invoice to the date of payment in full, interest at the rate of 5% per annum will be charged to the Client on all sums outstanding for more than 30 days. Elsevier reserves the right to withhold supply of the Products or Services under the current order until any sums outstanding are fully paid. Elsevier shall be entitled to apply any monies received by the Client, to clear any of the Client's outstanding debts to Elsevier.

12. Cancellations & Returns
If the Client cancels an order either fully or partially, a cancellation fee may be charged. All cancellations must be made in writing. This fee will be calculated to cover any external or internal costs which have been incurred or committed to up until the date of cancellation. Orders for products or services must be cancelled in writing prior to the relevant product’s delivery date, but in the event that cancellations are made after such date, Elsevier shall be entitled to charge the full cost of the advertisement. Any returns of the products shall be subject to the relevant Elsevier company’s return policy applicable to the product at the time of the return. Details of such policies will be provided to the Client upon request. Reprints cannot be returned once these have been printed.
