1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the “Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (“the Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier offer/acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the “TC”). If the Client does not accept the terms and conditions of the TC, the Client shall return the purchase order/invoice to Elsevier within 7 days of its receipt by the Client. Failure to return the purchase order/invoice will be deemed as acceptance of the terms and conditions of the TC by the Client. No later than 14 days from the date of delivery, the Client is required to verify the Client’s compliance with the TC. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s liability for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation. Where Products are sold to the Client that contain third party software or hardware such a sale may be subject to additional licence terms.

2. Offer and acceptance/ Description

Each offer of products from Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No offer placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier (if or as earlier Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commences performance of the Services for the Client). All Client orders are accepted subject to availability of the ordered Products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, if Elsevier has previously supplied or authorized it to supply that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If Elsevier is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products or Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the agent is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use. Client acknowledges that satisfaction of this representation and warranty will cause incapable harm to Elsevier. Upon any violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to discontinue all clients of the Products and Services from Elsevier, including all actual and previous clients that have not been previously properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with all representations and warranties agreed by both the parties in the relevant order, including those such as formats, printing, technical design, size and kind of address, files, weights and the like. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising issued by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier's catalogues or brochures are issued as published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described in them. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for rejecting delivery, as the case may be, or for claiming any damages.

3. Prices, taxes and currencies

Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing the prices for the Products and Services shall be set out in Elsevier’s current price list (whether print or online). All such price lists shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, insurance, transport and insurance charges unless otherwise agreed in writing, and shall be exclusive of all taxes, import duties or other taxes imposed on the sale or import of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as applicable. Where applicable, Client shall provide to Elsevier Client’s VIES registration number or other evidence of tax exemption to Elsevier at the time of placing its order. If, under the laws of the territory in which Client is selling the Products, the Client is required to withhold any tax on the sale of the Products or services, Elsevier shall be entitled to appropriate rent such, so that the actual amount actually remitted to Elsevier shall be sufficient to cover in full all such taxes and duties that may be levied by the taxing authorities. All financial transactions must be settled in the currency of the applicable Elsevier invoices. The Client will be solely responsible for its own cost for completing any foreign exchange-related procedures in the said territory that are necessary to enable it to pay Elsevier.

4. Payment

Payment terms, including the amount due and the date of payment, if any, shall be subject to the payment schedule and the conditions for payment specified in the TC. Payment terms shall be subject to the payment of all dispute, including any undisputed part of such invoice. Elsevier shall be entitled, at any time, to demand payment in advance and may refuse delivery of any Products or Services until such payment has been received. Where the Client is indebted to Elsevier for any other Product or Service under any order, Elsevier reserves the right to withhold supply of the Products or Services under the current order until any outstanding monies are fully paid. Elsevier shall be entitled to apply any monies received by the Client, to clear any of the Client’s outstanding debts to Elsevier.

5. Distribution

The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products or Services of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in those activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of its sales of the Products, exercising full control and shall ensure all of its losses from any such claims.

6. Intellectual property

Copyright and other intellectual property rights to all Elsevier products, publications and other or Services or Services shall remain with Elsevier unless otherwise agreed in writing. The rights granted by Elsevier are restricted to use solely by the Client and may not be assigned, transferred or sublicensed without the prior written permission of Elsevier. The Client is not permitted to use any Elsevier intellectual property for commercial purposes. Elsevier reserves all rights in and to the Products, other than the right to use the Products for its own purposes as set out on the Public Rate Card.

7. Liability and claims

The Client acknowledges that such payments are permissible under the Applicable Laws. The Client further agrees that he/she will not accept any payment to any employee or official of a government agency or any other government owned, operated or run universities, hospitals and libraries), or political parties or candidates (jointly “Government Official”). Neither Elsevier nor any of its officers, directors, employees or agents shall pay, offer, give, promise or authorize the payment of anything of value to any commercial contact or Government Official for the purpose or intent to induce such person to use his/her influence in any manner to influence the Client, the Client’s employees or agents or other persons with whom the Client has business dealings in any manner of whatsoever nature to influence the Client when acting as a consumer. The Client has entered into this TC in the knowledge that the liability of Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with these terms and conditions and the charges have been agreed accordingly. The Client acknowledges that a higher price would be payable for the Products or Services but for such limitations.

8. Force majeure

If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, riot, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or other action of the elements, accidents, war or communications failure, customs delays, governmental restrictions or any other cause beyond the control of a party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part any obligation set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of those obligations to the extent it is thereby unable to perform, and such inability to perform shall not make such party liable to any other party. The party subject to an event of force majeure shall use good faith efforts to enable the other party to make payments to Elsevier under clause.

9. Intellectual property rights

The Client acknowledges and agrees that the Client’s use of the Products and Services will be subject to all intellectual property rights in the Products and Services as set out in this TC. The Client acknowledges and agrees that the Client shall not, and shall not authorize or permit any third party to, copy, adapt, modify, create derivative works, or reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, or reduce to component parts the Products or Services, or in any manner reduce the Products or Services to any code or other format.

10. Cancellations & Returns

If a Client order is not cancelled by the Client within the specified period, Elsevier will be entitled to return the purchase order/invoice to the Client. The Client may cancel non-cancelable products or Services only in the event of a misprint, error or failure to supply any such Products or Services, upon written notice to Elsevier. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the written consent of Elsevier. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it to any person, firm or company. If any provision of the TC is found by any court, tribunal or administrative body or any other Government authority to be invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, those provisions of the TC shall be ineffective only to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability and the remainder of such provisions and the remainder of the provisions of the TC shall continue to be in full force and effect. Failure or delay by Elsevier in enforcing or partially enforcing any provision (or rescission of any breach) of the TC shall not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under the TC.
