2. Applicability These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). If you require any clarification before you order, please contact Elsevier by email at order.terms@elsevier.com or telephone +44 1865 473857. If the TC is not accepted in writing, any oral order placed by the Client shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or (if earlier) Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commences performance of the Services for the Client. All performance orders are subject to availability of the ordered Products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing, the Client acknowledges that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If the Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber or as principal, or if the agent is permitted to order personal representatives in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use. Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irrevocable harm to Elsevier. Upon any violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediately injunctive relief requiring Client to deliver all respective Products and Services from Elsevier, including all actual products that have not previously been properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with descriptions of the Products and Services agreed by both the parties in the relevant order, including such things as format, printing processes, technical design, and size and kind of address, file names, and the like. All drawings, descriptive materia, specifications and advertisements issued by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier’s catalogues or brochures are issued as published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described in them. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for rejects or returns, as the case may be, by Client, unless they alter the price.

3. Prices, taxes and currency Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing the prices for the Products and Services shall be set out in Elsevier's current price list (whether print or online). All such prices shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, insurance and transit costs and other charges normally charged by the carrier from any point of dispatch to the Client’s address. Invoices and statements shall be in respect of both the Products and the Services. Invoices and statements shall be net of all value added tax (VAT) unless otherwise agreed in writing. VAT will be charged at the rate of VAT applicable in the country of delivery or performance of services at the date of delivery or performance of services, whichever is the later. No discount shall be granted for prompt payment or otherwise.

4. Payment Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the date in invoice for time payment. Time for payment shall be of the essence. Elsevier may set and vary credit limits for any Client account and shall be entitled to refuse to supply any Client who has exceeded its current credit limit. Legal and legitimate title in any tangible Products supplied by Elsevier to the Client shall remain with Elsevier until Elsevier has received in full (i) all sums due to it in respect of the Products and all other sums which are or which become due to Elsevier from the Client on account of any obligation other than payment of such sums, and (ii) any other sums for which Elsevier is entitled to be indemnified by the Client under any agreement with Elsevier. The Client shall be responsible for ensuring that proposed advertising copy is received by Elsevier in electronic form (or such other form as specified by Elsevier) and within the relevant deadline set by Elsevier (the “Closing Date”). Where copy is received late or not at all, Elsevier reserves the right to use any reasonable alternative copy which may be available. The Client acknowledges and agrees that any such copy used will, to the extent required, be the original of the copy submitted. The Client acknowledges that the liability of Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with these terms and conditions and the charges have been agreed accordingly. The Client acknowledges that a higher price would be payable for the Products or Services but for such limitations.

5. Intellectual property Copyright and other intellectual property rights in the Products and Services and all material resulting therefrom shall be owned by Elsevier or its licensors. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, Elsevier will own the intellectual property rights in all data and material resulting from the receipt of the order. Except as expressly provided herein, Elsevier will not make any further use or disclosure of any such data or material except in accordance with the terms of the TC. Under no circumstances shall Elsevier be deemed to have waived any rights in the data or material resulting from the receipt of the order or against the Client.

6. Liability and claims TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ELSEVIER WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR any of the following losses which may arise by reason of any breach of this TC or any implied warranty, condition or other term, any representation or any warranty (of any kind, express or implied) imposed on Elsevier by operation of law (i) any loss of anticipated profit or expected future business (ii) any damage, costs or expenses payable to Elsevier by the Client to the third party (iii) loss of any kind or any order or contract or (iv) any losses that was not foreseen by the Client and Elsevier at the time this TC was entered into or (v) losses or expenses which are not caused by any Act of God, war, riot, civil commotion, strikes, lockouts or similar industrial disputes ("Act of Force Majeure") that shall result from any such event to the extent possible. Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with these terms and conditions and the charges have been agreed accordingly. The Client acknowledges that a higher price would be payable for the Products or Services but for such limitations.

7. Audit If the alterations requested are unacceptable, unless such changes are due to an event of force majeure, Elsevier can refuse to perform any order or, at its option, refund to the Client the price already paid for the products or Services and the Client shall be entitled to reject any order for reprints of material that has not been published.

8. In contract of force majeure shall use good faith efforts to comply as closely as possible with the provisions of this TC and to avoid the effects of such event to the extent possible. Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with these terms and conditions and the charges have been agreed accordingly. The Client acknowledges that a higher price would be payable for the Products or Services but for such limitations. The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the courts in such corporate domicile in any legal proceedings arising from or connected with the TC. Each party hereby irrevocably agrees to accept service of process in such corporate domicile by service at the registered office of the other party or by other means permitted by law. For the avoidance of doubt, the Client shall be deemed to have agreed to any required change in price, rate for volume by Elsevier, and the Client does not order the quoted volume, Elsevier shall be entitled to re-
