1. Applicability These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the "Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). They supersede any previous supply terms and conditions. For the purposes of the TC, Elsevier shall mean the company within the Elsevier group that is providing the Products or Services as set out in the relevant purchase order and, if the TC is assigned, shall mean the company to which it has been assigned. The TC and any amendments hereto shall be governed by the laws of the country where Elsevier is based and the courts of that country, except for any disputes that arise out of the supply of Services, which shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of the country with the location of the services. All communications between the parties shall be in English.

2. Offer and acceptance/ Description Each order for the Products or Services shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgment of order is issued by Elsevier or (if earlier) Elsevier delivers the Products or Services to the Client or commences performance of the Services. For all products, any delivery dates quoted are estimates and subject to change and Elsevier reserves the right to withhold delivery in respect of any Products or Services until the Client has made payment in full.

3. Execution and modification of the order Any modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget or schedule, as set out in the order acknowledgment, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional Services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall in the name of, to the account of, and at the risk of the Client. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/performance of the Products or Services are intended to be approximate and delivery/performance shall not be made of the essence by notice. If no dates are so specified, delivery/performance will be within a reasonable time.

4. Prices, taxes and currencies Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, the prices quoted for the Products and Services shall be set out in Elsevier’s current price list (whether print or online). All such prices shall be exclusive of any packing, handling, freight, insurance, transport and insurance charges unless otherwise agreed in writing, and shall also be exclusive of any taxes, import duties or other levies imposed on the sale or import of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as appropriate. Where applicable, Client shall provide to Elsevier its VAT registration number or other evidence of tax exemption to Elsevier at the time of placing its order. If, under the laws of the territory in which Elsevier is selling the Products, the Client is required to withhold any tax on the amounts payable to Elsevier under the TC, then such withholding tax shall be deducted from the payment made by the Client to Elsevier. The Client shall provide proof of the withholding tax on request. Any such withholding tax shall be charged to the Client at the time of delivery of the Products. The Client shall be solely responsible for meeting all foreign exchange-related premiums in the territory in which the Services are rendered or to which they are delivered.

5. Payment Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency stated on the invoice. Time for payment shall be of the essence. Elsevier may set any credit limits for any Client account and shall be entitled to refuse to supply any Client who has exceeded its current credit limit. Legal and legitimate titles in any tangible Products supplied by Elsevier to the Client shall remain with Elsevier until Elsevier has received full (net) cash or cleared funds for all amounts due to Elsevier in respect of the Products and all other sums which are or which become due to Elsevier from the Client on account. The Client may not resell or transfer ownership of the Products before receipt of payment. The Client’s use of any such Product shall be subject to the Client’s risk as delivered. The Client shall make all payments due under the TC without any deduction whether by way of set-off, counterclaim, discount, abatement or otherwise unless Elsevier has a valid court order requiring an amount equal to such deduction to be paid to Elsevier. From the due date of the invoice to the date of payment in full, interest at the rate of 5% may be charged to the Client on any balance outstanding. Together with any collection fees incurred by Elsevier. If the Client wishes to dispute any invoice (or part thereof), the Client shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, but no later than the due date of such invoice, send full details of such dispute to Elsevier in writing. The Client shall remain liable for full payment of the disputed invoice(s) until Elsevier’s decision is final. Upon receipt by Elsevier of the Client’s written notice of cancellation, Elsevier reserves the right to set-off against the TC until such payment has been received. Where the Client is indebted to Elsevier for any other Product or Service under any other order, Elsevier reserves the right to withhold supply of the Products or Services under the current order until any outstanding monies are fully paid. Elsevier shall be entitled to apply any monies received by the Client, to clear any of the Client’s outstanding debts to Elsevier.

6. Distribution The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products or services of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in those activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers payments due in respect of its sales of the Products, exercising full control and selling against all of its losses from any uncollected amounts. Default or failure in obtaining such payments will not affect the Client’s ability to make payments to Elsevier under the TC.

7. Intellectual property Copyright and other intellectual property rights relating to the Products or Services, Elsevier’s business name and logo, brand names, other marks or other proprietary rights or (4) are otherwise objectionable to Elsevier. In such event, Elsevier may either (i) elect to cease further services and deliver to the Client any Products and/or Services not required by the Client, and repaid to Elsevier any advances paid to the Client, (ii) cease further services without the requirement of delivery and repayment to the Client, or (iii) at Elsevier’s discretion, Elsevier shall be entitled to retain any monies paid by the Client to Elsevier which shall become Elsevier’s property. The Client shall not use any such Product in the form in which it is supplied, or by which it is supplied, unless it is for personal use. Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. Upon any violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to deliver all recipients of Elsevier

8. Liability and claims To THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY RELEVANT LAWS (i) Elsevier shall not be liable for any of the following losses which may arise by reason of breach of this TC or any implied warranty, condition or other term, any representation or any duty of any kind imposed on Elsevier by operation of law (ii) loss of anticipated profits or expected future business; (iii) damage to reputation or goodwill; (iv) any damages, costs or expenses payable by Elsevier to any third party; (vi) loss of any kind or order, or (vii) any claim brought by a third party or similar to such (iv) and/or (vii) on these terms. Elsevier shall be relieved of any liability in proportion to the degree to which the inability to perform is due to causes within the control of the party and is caused by the event of force majeure. Elsevier shall be entitled to apply any monies received by the Client, to clear any of the Client’s outstanding debts to Elsevier.

9. Force majeure If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, riot, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or other action of the Client, accidents, power or telecommunications failure, customs delays, government regulations or appropriation or other cause beyond the control of a party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part its obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of all liability to the other party. If the party subject to an event of force majeure shall not make payments to Elsevier under the TC until such advance payment has been received. Where the Client is indebted to Elsevier for any other Product or Service under any other order, Elsevier reserves the right to withhold supply of the Products or Services under the current order until any outstanding monies are fully paid. Elsevier shall be entitled to apply any monies received by the Client, to clear any of the Client’s outstanding debts to Elsevier.
