World Neurosurgery

Overview

Aims and Scope: To create a principal international information conduit for establishing modernity of neurosurgical practice for the global community through contemporary and innovative journalistic communication technologies and channels. To serve as a forum for scientific, clinical, educational, social, cultural, economic, and political ideas and issues for global neurosurgery. To act as a primary intellectual catalyst for the field. To enhance and move toward complete global communication related to all aspects of current and future neurosurgical practice, research, and progress.

ELSEVIER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUPPLY

1. Applicability These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the "Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). They supersede any previous terms and conditions for the purpose of the TC. Elsevier shall mean the company within the Elsevier group that is providing the Products or Services as set out on the invoice. Each order for the Products and/or Services by the Client from Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or (if earlier) Elsevier delivers the Products or services from Elsevier to the Client or commences performance of the Services. For all Client orders Elsevier are accepted subject to availability of the ordered Products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the agent is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use. Client acknowledges that representation of this nature and character shall not cause harm to Elsevier. Upon any variation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to discontinue all receipts of Products and Services from Elsevier including all actual receipts that have not been properly previously identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with descriptions of the Products and Services agreed by both the parties in the relevant order, including such terms as format, printing processes, design and kind of available address, weight and the like. All drawings, description, metric, specifications and advertising used by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier’s catalogues or brochures are issued as published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described in them. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design character of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for repudiation or rescission, as the case may be, of the order price.

2. Offer and acceptance/ Description Any modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget, schedule or set out in the order acknowledgement, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall act in the name of, to the account of, and at the risk of the Client. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/ performance of the Products and Services are intended to be an estimate and time for delivery/performance shall not be made of the essence by notice. If no dates are so specified, delivery/performance shall be at Elsevier’s convenience.

3. Prices, terms and currencies Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing the prices for the Products and Services shall be as set out in Elsevier’s current price list (whether print or online). All such price lists shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, insurance and transport and insurance charges unless otherwise agreed in writing, and shall also be exclusive of any taxes, import duties or other taxes imposed on the sale or import of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as appropriate. Where applicable, Client shall provide to Elsevier Client’s VAT registration number or other evidence of tax exemption to Elsevier at the time of placing its order. If, under the laws of the territory in which Client is selling the Products, the Client is required to withhold any tax on the above payment to be made to Elsevier, then the Client will make such deduction or witholding and pay such tax to the appropriate authority. In such event, Elsevier shall be entitled to the amount actually netted to Elsevier and a corresponding reimbursement from the Client of the tax paid. Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, payment or other benefit in money or in kind from any person as an inducement or reward for any act or forbearance or in connection with any matter or business transacted by or on behalf of Elsevier.

4. Liability and claims The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of that State in any action, suit or other legal proceeding arising out of or in connection with the TC or the performance of the Services or otherwise. If Client is a government, the Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products or Services under this TC for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the Client is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified eligible individual subscriber for personal use. Client acknowledges that representation of this nature and character shall not cause harm to Elsevier. Upon any variation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to discontinue all receipts of Products and Services from Elsevier, including all actual receipts that have not been properly previously identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with descriptions of the Products and Services agreed by both the parties in the relevant order, including such terms as format, printing processes, design and kind of available address, weight and the like. All drawings, description, metric, specifications and advertising used by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier’s catalogues or brochures are issued as published for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described in them. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design character of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for repudiation or rescission, as the case may be, of the order price.

5. Execution and modification of the order All modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget, schedule or set out in the order acknowledgement, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall act in the name of, to the account of, and at the risk of the Client. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/ performance of the Products and Services are intended to be an estimate and time for delivery/performance shall not be made of the essence by notice. If no dates are so specified, delivery/performance shall be at Elsevier’s convenience.

6. Distribution The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products or services of Elsevier, or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in those activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of its sales of the Products, exercising full credit control and solely bearing all of its losses from any uncollected amounts. Delay or failures in obtaining such payments shall not affect Elsevier’s obligation to make payments to Elsevier under this TC.

7. Intellectual property Copyright and other intellectual property rights to the Products, Elsevier’s proposals, publications and other Or Services or Services shall remain with Elsevier unless otherwise agreed in writing. In the event of Client’s breach of these terms, Elsevier shall be entitled to recover payment for the Products of the Client notwithstanding that ownership of any of the copies of the Product has not passed from Elsevier. The avoidance for doubt no intellectual property rights in any Products or Services shall transfer to the Client. Products shall be at the Client’s risk as from delivery. The Client shall make all payments due under the TC without any deduction whether by way of set-off, counterclaim, declaration, statement or otherwise. The Client acknowledges that Elsevier has a valid court order requiring an amount equal to such deduction to be paid to Elsevier from the Client. From the due date of the invoice to the date of payment in full, interest at the rate of 5% may be charged to the Client on a monthly basis for any sums outstanding, together with any collection fees incurred by Elsevier. If the Client wishes to dispute any invoice or (part thereof), the Client shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, but not later than the due date of such invoice, send full details of such dispute to Elsevier in writing. The Client shall remain liable to pay for the full amount of the disputed invoice plus any collection fees incurred by Elsevier as well as the interest at the rate of 5% per annum and any costs (including reasonable legal fees and expenses incurred by Elsevier, arising out of or related to the advertising) incurred by Elsevier as a result of such dispute. Elsevier reserves the right to withhold the supply of Products or Services under the current order until any outstanding invoices are fully paid. Elsevier shall be entitled to apply any monies received by the Client, to clear any of its outstanding debts to Elsevier.

8. Audit Where an order includes advertising in Elsevier’s publications, the Client shall not carry any advertising or reproduction of any Client’s advertising and/or terminate this TC if Elsevier determines, in its sole discretion, that the Advertising Content, as either in its content or presentation or format or manner of presentation or any other characteristic of the Advertising is inappropriate or objectionable to Elsevier. In such event, Elsevier may either (i) correct the Advertising Content and related advertising matter, including the removal of any content from the Client’s advertising, (ii) charge the Client for the costs of such correction, (iii) cease or suspend publication of the Client’s advertising or, (iv) refuse to accept for any further publication any advertising from the Client. Expenses and legal or other costs incurred by Elsevier in relation thereto (including reasonable legal fees and expenses incurred by Elsevier) shall be charged to the Client.
