1. Applicability
   These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgment, shall form the entire agreement between the parties ("the TC"). No other additional terms or conditions shall be effective unless agreed in writing and signed by an authorized signatory of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC shall exclude or limit Elsevier's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation. Where Products are sold to the Client that contain third party software or services such a sale may be subject to additional licence terms.

2. Offer and acceptance/ Description
   Each order for the Products shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgment of order is issued by Elsevier (or, at Elsevier's discretion, Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client or commences performance of the Services for all Client orders). All Client orders are accepted subject to availability of the ordered Products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier, any failure by Elsevier to provide satisfactory proof that its Products or Services are available for the Client's own account and use and not available on any other person or entity. If the Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products from Elsevier for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber as principal or, if the Client is authorized to order products or subscriptions in a representative capacity, for the account and use of no more than one identified institutional subscriber for valid personal use. Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. Upon any violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to discontinue all delivery of the Products and Services from Elsevier, including all actual products that have not previously been properly identified by Client. Elsevier shall use commercially reasonable efforts to comply with the representations and Services agreed by both parties in the relevant order, including such things as format, printing processes, technical design, size and kind of address, weights and the like. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising issued by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier's catalogues or brochures are issued solely for the sole purpose of giving an approximate description of the Products and Services described in them. They will not form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for rejection or return, as the case may be, of the Client's order.

3. Execution and modification of the order
   Any modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget or schedule, as set out in the order acknowledgment, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier's discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional Services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall act in the name of, to the account of, and at the risk of the Client. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/performance of the Products or Services are intended to be an estimate for time of delivery/performance and shall not be the measure of the essence by nature. If no dates are so specified, performance/delivery will be at a time mutually agreed.

4. Prices, taxes and currencies
   Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing in the proposals for the Products and Services and Services shall be set out in Elsevier's current price list(s) whether printed or online. All such price lists shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, transport and import charges and insurance unless otherwise agreed in writing, and shall also be exclusive of any taxes, import duties or other levies imposed on the sale or import of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as applicable. Where applicable, Client shall provide to Elsevier Client's VAT registration number or other evidence of tax exemption to Elsevier at the time of placing its order. If, under the laws of the territory in which Client is selling the Products, the Client is required to withhold any tax on the payment made under the TC, it shall, upon written request from Elsevier, provide evidence of the amount of tax due and shall pay Elsevier the amount of tax due and any interest chargeable thereon within the specified time.

5. Payment
   Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency specified. Time for payment shall be of the essence. Elsevier may set any valid credit limits for any Client account and shall be entitled to refuse to supply any Client who has exceeded its current credit limit. Legal and beneficial title in any tangible Products supplied by Elsevier to the Client shall remain with Elsevier until Elsevier has received in full (n) cash or cleared funds all sums due to it in respect of the Products and all other amounts which are or may become due to Elsevier from the Client on account. The Client may sell or otherwise dispose of the Products prior to receiving payment in full, provided that any sale shall be on behalf of Elsevier. If the Client shall become bankrupt or appoint any person to act as receiver, liquidator, manager, administrative receiver, administrative appointed receiver, administrative manager, administrative浮力 receiver, administrative浮力 receiver, administrative浮力 receiver, floating charge or other similar person or body with power to control the administration of the Client's affairs, Elsevier shall be entitled to demand immediate payment in full of all sums due from the Client to Elsevier, and if such notice is not observed, Elsevier may immediately cease to supply any Products or Services to the Client. If any payment is overdue, it shall be accruing interest at a rate of 15% per annum from the date of the invoice, together with any other costs incurred by Elsevier in recovering such overdue payment. If the Client wishes to dispute any invoice (or part thereof), the Client shall, as soon as reasonably practicable but no later than the due date of such invoice, send full details of such dispute to Elsevier in writing. The Client shall remain liable for full payment of the invoice in question until the dispute has been resolved and the Client shall not be entitled to withhold payment of any undisputed part of such invoice. Elsevier shall be entitled, at any time, to demand payment in advance and may require such payment to be made in such currency as Elsevier's prevailing practice in the local currency, unless agreed otherwise in writing. Any advances paid to the Client by Elsevier shall be available solely for the purchase of Products and Services under the current order and until such advance payment has been received, Elsevier shall be entitled to apply any monies received by the Client, to clear any of the Client's outstanding debts to Elsevier.

6. Distribution
   The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products or Services of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in those activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of its sales of the Products, exercising full credit control and solely bearing all of its own losses resulting from any uncollected amounts. Delays or failures in obtaining such payments will not affect Elsevier's obligation to make payments to Elsevier under clause 5.

7. Intellectual property
   Copyright and other intellectual property rights to all Elsevier proposals, publications and other Products and Services shall remain with Elsevier unless otherwise agreed in writing. The rights granted by Elsevier are restricted to use solely by the Client and may not be assigned, transferred or sublicensed without the prior written permission of Elsevier. The rights granted by Elsevier are non-exclusive and for the purpose expressly agreed upon. Any other use shall require the prior written permission of Elsevier. The Client shall not acquire any intellectual property rights in the Products. In no part of the Elsevier proposals, publications or Products may be stored in any automated data file and/or reproduced, whether electronically, mechanically, by photography, recording or in any other manner or form, without the specific prior written permission of Elsevier.

8. Liability and claims
   TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY RELEVANT LAWS (i) Elsevier shall not be liable for any of the following losses which may arise by reason of any breach of this TC or any implied warranty, condition or other term, any representation or any duty of any kind of Elsevier or its employees and agents shall engage only in legitimate business and ethical practices in commercial operations and in dealing with its customers, suppliers and employees, (ii) the Client acknowledges and agrees that Elsevier is not liable for any of the following losses which may arise by reason of any breach of this TC or any implied warranty, condition or other term, any representation or any duty of any kind of the Client or anything or anyone acting on behalf of the Client, (iii) Ellesierv's responsibility under this TC is limited to negligence and such liability will be determined in accordance with the laws of the court of that same corporate domicile. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the written consent of Elsevier. If any provision of the TC is found by any court, tribunal or other body with jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable in whole or in part then the provision in question shall remain valid and enforceable to the full extent permitted by law.

9. Force majeure
   Force majeure is defined as any event or events beyond the reasonable control of either party, whether preventable or not, which may cause a party to fail to perform its obligations under this TC. This includes, but is not limited to, acts of God, strikes or other industrial disputes, war, civil commotion, terrorism, riot, insurrection, government or other intervention or interference, breakdown of communications, transportation, or delivery facilities, changes in currency exchange rates or unavailability of materials or supplies.

10. Delivery
   Delivery of Products and Services to the Client will be made by Elsevier as soon as possible after receipt of payment. Delivery dates quoted are estimates and are intended to be an estimate only and are not guaranteed delivery dates. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery/performance of the Products or Services are intended to be an estimate for delivery/performance and shall not be the measure of the essence by nature. If no dates are so specified, delivery/performance will be at a time mutually agreed.

11. Cancellations & Returns
   Notwithstanding anything herein contained, in the event of any change in the relevant order, any shortage in the delivery of any title, any failure to deliver at the agreed time, any damage in transit to the Client, or any act or omission of the carrier, Elsevier shall not be liable for the Client in any way for loss or damage resulting therefrom. Elsevier shall be entitled to treat all such circumstances as a force majeure event, and the provisions of force majeure shall use good faith efforts to comply as closely as possible with the provisions of this TC and to avoid the effects of such event to the extent possible.

12. Compliance with laws
   Elsevier's obligations under these terms and conditions are made subject to the laws of the place of business of Elsevier, which may change from time to time. The Client agrees to indemnify and hold Elsevier harmless of and from any claims, actions, suits, proceedings, costs and expenses, which are directly related to the promotion, demonstration or explanation of Products or Services or the interpretation or enforcement thereof. The Client has entered into this TC in the knowledge that the liability of Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with these provisions and the Client has agreed that the Client acknowledges that a higher price would be payable for the Products or Services but for such limitations.

13. Access to Client's systems
   If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, insubordination, or inability to obtain labor, material, fire or other action of the Client's employees, accidents, power or telecommunications failure, customs delays, governmental restrictions or appropriation or other cause beyond the control of the party, such party is unable to perform in whole or in part any obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of those obligations to the extent it is thereby unable to perform, and such failure to perform shall not make such party liable to any other party. The party subject to an event of force majeure shall use good faith efforts to comply as closely as possible with the provisions of this TC and to avoid the effects of such event to the extent possible.

14. General
   These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgment, shall form the entire agreement between the parties ("the TC"). No other additional terms or conditions shall be effective unless agreed in writing and signed by an authorized signatory of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC shall exclude or limit Elsevier's liability for fraudulent misrepresentation. Where Products are sold to the Client that contain third party software or services such a sale may be subject to additional licence terms.
