British Journal of Oral & Maxillofacial Surgery

Overview
This bi-monthly, easily readable, high-quality journal has one of the largest circulations of any oral and maxillofacial surgery journal. It receives articles from around the world and has an international Editorial Board. Articles are peer reviewed by at least two referees and when accepted are reviewed by the journal’s Technical Editor to ensure a consistently high standard. Each issue publishes articles on current techniques and surgical innovations covering the full spectrum of surgery in the oro-facial and head and neck region. This journal is an excellent resource for oral and maxillofacial, plastic, E.N.T. and ophthalmic surgeons.

1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all proposals, offers and agreements made by Elsevier and any third party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties ("the TC"). They supersede any previous statements or representations made by Elsevier or any of its employees or agents.

2. Client

The Client shall be the customer referred to in this Agreement. The Client will be considered to be any party entitled to receive the Products and/or Services. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Elsevier will be entitled to refuse to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier.

3. Payment

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency rendered. Failure or delay by the Client in payment shall not constitute a waiver of Elsevier’s right to any other payment under the TC. The Client shall pay all costs, charges, expenses and any other amounts payable in respect of the Products and/or Services, and shall ensure that all payments are paid to the account specified by Elsevier. Elsevier reserves the right to refuse any Client who has exceeded its current credit limits or who has made late payments. Elsevier reserves the right to refuse to supply any Client who has exceeded its credit limit.

4. Intellectual property rights

Copyright and other intellectual property rights to all Elsevier proposals, publications and other Products and or services shall remain with Elsevier unless agreed otherwise in writing. The Client shall not be entitled to sell, assign, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any Products and/or Services without the prior written consent of Elsevier. The Client shall not, directly or indirectly, sell, assign, lease, license, or otherwise dispose of any Products and/or Services to a third party.

5. Applicability of laws

To the maximum extent permitted by relevant laws Elsevier shall not be liable for any of the following losses which may not be any breach of this TC or any implied warranty, condition or other term, any representation or any duty of any kind imposed on Elsevier by operation of law (a) any loss of profits or of anticipated future business; (b) damage to reputation or goodwill; (c) any indirect damage or (d) any loss that was not foreseeable by Elsevier at the time the TC was entered into or (e) which does not fall within any category stated in (a), (b), or (c).

6. Force majeure

Neither party shall be liable for any failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement or to comply with any provision of this Agreement if and to the extent that the failure or delay to perform is caused by any circumstances beyond its reasonable control including (without limitation) acts of God, war, terrorism, civil commotions, strikes, lockouts, accidents or breakdowns of machinery or transport.

7. Compliance with laws

The Client shall at all times during the term strictly comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, codes, regulations, and administrative orders (jointly “Applicable Law” or “Laws”) relevant to its duties, obligations and performance under this Agreement, including, without limitation, the laws governing the Client’s business and its dealings with any employee or official of a government agency or any other government entity.

8. Audit

Elsevier reserves the right to inspect and verify the Products and/or Services, and the records related thereto, and to make copies thereof at the Client’s expense. The Client shall permit Elsevier’s representatives to enter upon the Client’s premises and the premises of any employee or official of a government agency or any other government entity to verify that the Products and/or Services have been properly paid for.

9. Force majeure

This Agreement shall not be construed as creating an obligation to indemnify the other party against the other party’s own negligence. ELSEVIER’S LIABILITY FOR ANY OTHER LOSSES WHATSOEVER TO ANY INDEMNIBILITY LIMITS OF LIABILITY IN THIS CONTRACT SHALL NOT LIMIT INDIVIDUAL INDEMNITIES WHICH ELSEVIER MIGHT HAVE TO PAY IN ACCORDANCE WITH ANY OTHER LAWS REGARDING INDEMNIFICATION OR OTHER FORMS OF LIABILITY.

10. Advertising & Reprints

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, no part of the Elsevier proposals, publications or other content shall be reprinted in whole or in part without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Elsevier reserves the right to refuse to supply any Client who has exceeded its credit limit.

11. Voidable clauses

If any part of this Agreement is found to be void, unenforceable or unreasonable it shall to the extent of such illegality, invalidity, voidness, voidability, or unenforceability, be severable and the remainder of such provision shall continue in full force and effect. Failure or delay by Elsevier in enforcing or performing any provision of the TC will not constitute a waiver of Elsevier’s right to enforce such provision at a later date.

12. Compliance with laws

The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC to a third party, or any part of it, to any person, firm, or company, if any provision of the TC is found to be void, illegal, voidable, unenforceable or unenforceable in the state of any such corporation, nullity, voidness, unenforceability or unenforceable in any other state or jurisdiction, in whole or in part, and the prohibitions and restrictions of the TC and the remainder of such provision shall continue in full force and effect. Failure or delay by Elsevier in enforcing or performing any provision (or procuring any breach of the TC) will not constitute a waiver of any of its rights under the TC.
