Clinical Nutrition

Overview

Clinical Nutrition, the official journal of ESPEN, The European Society for Clinical Nutrition and Metabolism, is an international journal providing scientific information on nutritional and metabolic care and the relationship between nutrition and disease both in the setting of basic science and clinical practice. Published bi-monthly, each issue combines original articles and reviews providing an invaluable reference for any specialist concerned with these fields. Nutrition and nutritional care have gained wide clinical and scientific interest during the past decades. The increasing knowledge of metabolic disturbances and nutritional assessment in chronic and acute diseases has stimulated rapid advances in design, development and clinical application of nutritional support. The aims of ESPEN are to encourage the rapid diffusion of knowledge and its application in the field of clinical nutrition and metabolism.

Being the journal of ESPEN with members from various interests, either focused on basic research or clinical disciplines, the journal reflects the scientific nature of this multidisciplinary background and encourages the coordination of investigation and research from these disciplines. The journal publishes guidelines, consensus statements, review papers, original articles, short communications, and letters to the Editor on those factors in acute and chronic diseases, which have metabolic and nutritional implications. It also publishes scientific works related to the development of new techniques and their application in the field of clinical nutrition.

1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all proposals, offers, and agreements made between Elsevier and any party to it ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgment, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). These terms supersede any previous terms and conditions of any other supplier of similar products or services to the Client. The Client acknowledges and agrees that the terms and conditions of the TC shall apply to the Products and Services as set out in the Elsevier order acknowledgement or invoice. Where general terms and conditions of business are proposed by the Client, these shall not apply and the TC shall prevail. Any variation to the TC and any representations about the Products and Services shall have no effect unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorized signature of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s Liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.

2. Offer and acceptance/ Description

Any offer made by Elsevier will be open for acceptance only until such time as Elsevier’s offer is withdrawn or accepted by the Client. Elsevier shall not be bound by any proposal from the Client. For the purposes of the TC, if a Client makes any request or proposal for any changes or modifications to these terms and conditions, such request or proposal shall not be deemed to be accepted unless submitted in accordance with the requirements of the TC and the Client is not entitled to make any such changes or modifications unless written authority is given by Elsevier in writing.

3. Execution and modification of the order

(a) A duly signed order acknowledgment constitutes a contract. The Client understands that it has the right to modify the order acknowledgment, subject to the relevant savings and limitations provided herein. If the Client requires any changes or modifications to the order acknowledgment, it may be an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional services, such services shall be paid for in accordance with the relevant rate card.

(b) The Client is solely responsible for collecting all amounts due and owing to Elsevier in respect of the sale of the Products or Services under the TC. Failure or delay in paying such amounts shall not affect Elsevier’s rights under the TC. The Client shall have no right to offset any amounts due from Elsevier against any claims or claims of any nature.

4. Prices, taxes and currencies

(a) The TC and any related orders are subject to adjustment for any additional taxes, duties, or charges, which may be levied by the appropriate taxing authorities or any other governmental or regulatory body now or hereafter established. Any such charges are to be borne by the Client.

(b) The Client shall pay a fee for any additional services requested by the Client, whether or not the Client’s own business is proposed by the Client, these shall not apply and the TC will prevail. Any variation to the TC and any representations about the Products and Services shall have no effect unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorized signature of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s Liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.

5. Price

(a) All payments shall be in accordance with the provisions of this TC and to avoid the effects of such event to the extent possible.

(b) The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Elsevier may terminate this TC at any time in the event of a breach on the part of Elsevier; AND (ii) NEITHER PARTY SHALL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR death OR PERSONAL INJURY OR DESTRUCTION OR DAMAGE TO PROPERTY CAUSED BY ANY BREACH OF THE TC WHETHER DIRECT OR CONSEQUENTIAL.

6. Liability and claims

(a) Elsevier shall use reasonable care to ensure that the Products and Services are delivered in accordance with the order acknowledgment, and subject to the provisions of this TC and to avoid the effects of such event to the extent possible.

(b) The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate any other party to engage in these activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party.

(c) The Client is solely responsible for collecting all amounts due and owing to Elsevier in respect of the sale of the Products or Services under the TC. Failure or delay in paying such amounts shall not affect Elsevier’s rights under the TC. The Client shall have no right to offset any amounts due from Elsevier against any claims or claims of any nature.

7. Intellectual property

(a) Copyright and other property rights in all Elsevier products and services are reserved. The Client may not alter, modify, or reproduce any of the Products or Services in any manner, whether for its own use or for the use of any third party, without the prior written permission of Elsevier.

(b) Elsevier represents and warrants that it has the necessary rights and permissions to provide the Products and Services. Elsevier shall take reasonable care but shall not be liable for accidental loss or damage thereto.

(c) Elsevier shall deliver to Elsevier any and all rights, titles, and interests in the Products as set out in the order acknowledgment or invoice. Where general terms and conditions of business are proposed by the Client, these shall not apply and the TC will prevail. Any variation to the TC and any representations about the Products and Services shall have no effect unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorized signature of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s Liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.
