Journal of Infection

Overview

The Journal of Infection publishes original papers on all aspects of infection - clinical, microbiological, epidemiological and molecular. The journal seeks to bring together knowledge from all specialities involved in the research and clinical practice of infection and to present the best work in this ever-changing field. The journal is among the leaders in its field and has an excellent ISI ranking (4.073 in 2012). With low referee times, a dedicated editorial team and a forward thinking approach it provides the best forum for original research.

The Journal of Infection is abstracted and indexed in:
EMBASE/Excerpta Medica, Index Medicus, Science Citation Index, Current Contents/Life Sciences, SCISEARCH, Research Alert, Medical Documentation Service and CAB Abstracts / CAB Health.

1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and either party or its agent(s) ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties ("the TC"). They supersede any previous representation or agreement made between the parties by word, deed or usage and shall prevail over any other representations or agreements.

2. Compliance with laws

The Client shall at all times during the term strictly comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, codes, regulations and governmental orders relevant to its duties, obligations and performance under this Agreement, including, without limitation, the laws on intellectual property, copyright, privacy, data protection, marketing, telecommunications, and the rights of consumers.

3. Non-infringement

The Client represents and warrants to Elsevier that the Client has satisfied itself as to the suitability of the Products and Services for the Client's intended use, that the Client will not use or permit the use of the Products and Services in contravention of any laws or regulations, that it will not commit acts that constitute or promote acts of theft, piracy, or Internet theft, that it will not infringe any copyright, trademark or other proprietary rights of third parties and that it will not violate any right of privacy or publicity of third parties.

4. Prices, taxes and currencies

4.1. Prices

The prices for the Products or Services shall be as set out on the Elsevier order acknowledgement, unless such prices are modified by agreement in writing signed or acknowledged by an authorised officer of Elsevier. All prices are exclusive of any value added tax, duties, import duties, customs duties, taxes, levies, charges, fees, surcharges, or any other similar levies or charges which may be levied by any government or any local authority or other body or any national authority or any other authority or any of their agents or representatives.

5. Payment

5.1. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency then prevailing. Invoice dates are the dates of delivery unless otherwise agreed in writing.

6. Distribution

6.1. The Client acknowledges that Elsevier shall in its sole discretion make the Products or Services available through one or more of its branches, distributors, agents, or sub-agents and that the Client’s terms and conditions of purchase shall not apply to the sale of the Products or Services as set out on the Elsevier order acknowledgement.

7. Liability and claims

7.1. Neither Elsevier nor its suppliers, contractors or agents shall be liable for any indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages or lost profits or any other damages, including but not limited to loss of or damages to the Products or Services, or any damages resulting from the use of or inability to use the Products or Services or from any breach of the terms of these Conditions.

8. Cancellations & Returns

8.1. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Elsevier reserves the right to withhold supplies or deliveries until the Client has paid all outstanding amounts due.

9. Force majeure

9.1. In the event of any event beyond the reasonable control of either party to these terms and conditions, which by its nature is incapable of prevention or avoidance, and which is not attributable to the fault or default of the party claiming such force majeure, then the party claiming such force majeure shall not be liable for any delay or failure in performance caused thereby, and shall be excused from performance for so long as such event continues, or until the party is relieved from its obligation to perform by law or these terms and conditions.

10. Advertising & Reprints

10.1. Any advertising or reprints of the Products or Services shall be as set out on the Elsevier order acknowledgement, unless such advertising or reprints are modified by agreement in writing signed or acknowledged by an authorised officer of Elsevier. All advertising and reprints are exclusive of any value added tax, duties, import duties, customs duties, taxes, levies, charges, fees, surcharges, or any other similar levies or charges which may be levied by any government or any local authority or other body or any national authority or any other authority or any of their agents or representatives.

11. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all orders placed by the Client for the supply of the Products or Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or [Elsevier]. Elsevier shall be entitled to deliver the Products or issue the invoice to the Client or commercial representative of the Client for the Services. For all products ordered, the Client is responsible for the payment of the full amount of the invoice directly to Elsevier.

12. Compliance with laws

The Client shall at all times during the term strictly comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, codes, regulations and governmental orders relevant to its duties, obligations and performance under this Agreement, including, without limitation, the laws on intellectual property, copyright, privacy, data protection, marketing, telecommunications, and the rights of consumers.

13. Cancellations & Returns

The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Elsevier reserves the right to withhold supplies or deliveries until the Client has paid all outstanding amounts due.

14. eTOC Metrics

EtoC Metrics: 12 Month Average of eTOC sends - July 2022 to June 2023

Client shall at all times during the term strictly comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, codes, regulations and governmental orders relevant to its duties, obligations and performance under this Agreement, including, without limitation, the laws on intellectual property, copyright, privacy, data protection, marketing, telecommunications, and the rights of consumers.
