These terms and conditions shall apply to the offers, proposals, and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). These terms supersede any previous communications between the parties in writing or electronically. Any variations to the TC and any representations about the Products and Services shall have no effect unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorised signature of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s Liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.

2. Offer and acceptance

(a) The Client shall purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted unless written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client confirming performance of the Services for the Client. All products and services are subject to availability of the ordered Products. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Elsevier in writing, Client represents and warrants that it is purchasing Products and Services from Elsevier for its own account and for its own and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If the Client is acting in agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for the Client’s account and that all services in respect of the Client has been identified as principal in respect to it. If the agent is permitted to order personal subscriptions in a total amount, the account will be one or more identifiable individual subscriber for self-usage purposes. Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier upon any violation of this representation and warranty.

(b) Where delivery of the Services involves installation, training, or the like, the Client acknowledges that such the services are rendered at times when the Client’s systems and personnel are not solely dedicated to the performance of the Services. Failure to deliver the Services in accordance with the TC will not be construed as a material breach of the TC. Provided the Client does not accept the Services within a reasonable period, Elsevier has the right to cancel the Services and any advertising content.

(c) The Client shall comply with the provisions of the RELX Suppliers Code of Conduct at Suppliers Code of Conduct and Applicable Laws related to bribery, including, without limitation, the United States Foreign Corrupt Practice Act and the UK Bribery Act and those enforced in the country where business is being conducted.

3. Execution and modification of the order

(a) Any alteration of the offer or these terms and conditions shall be effective only if in writing and signed by an authorised signature of Elsevier.

(b) Any Cancellation of the order shall be subject to a charge of 20% of the total value of the order. No cancellations or returns are permitted after the order has been accepted for production.

(c) Any modifications to the order shall be binding only if agreed in writing by an authorised signature of Elsevier.

4. Prices, taxes and currencies

(a) The Client acknowledges that any prices are exclusive of any value added tax, if applicable, and that they are subject to any government or regulatory taxes or other duties now or hereafter imposed on the Products. If a change in exchange rate occurs after the date of the order, the Client will pay Elsevier a surcharge for converting the price at then applicable exchange rate. Each party shall make any and all payments due under the TC in the currency of delivery without deduction and without payment of premium. The Client agree that they are fully and unconditionally liable for all taxes, duties, levies, or other charges or amounts which are imposed upon or in respect to the whole or any part of the delivery, payment, or performance of services as provided under the TC.

(b) In the event that the Client is required to pay any tax, duty, or fee to any governmental authority or any other third party, the Client shall indemnify Elsevier for reasonable costs, including any applicable taxes, incurred in connection with the payment of such tax, duty, or fee.

Payment is to be made by bank transfer, credit card or any other method approved by Elsevier in writing. For orders placed with Elsevier, payment is due no later than the due date of the invoice.

(b) Failure or delay in making any payment for the Products or Services shall not affect Elsevier’s right to continue to supply the Products or Services to the Client. The Client acknowledges that Elsevier may charge rates at times when the Client’s systems and personnel are not solely dedicated to the performance of the Services. In the event that the Client fails to make any payment when due, Elsevier may, without prejudice to any other rights and remedies available to Elsevier, cancel any future deliveries or invoices.

(c) The Client shall be in breach of the TC if it fails to make any payment when due or to make any payment in accordance with the terms and conditions of the TC.
