2. Applicability These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made between Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the “Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (“the Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the “TC”). In the event of any conflict between any of these terms and conditions and any prior agreement or representation, these terms and conditions shall prevail. For the purposes of the TC, “Elsevier” shall mean the company within the Elsevier group that is providing the Products or Services as set out on the order acknowledgement. If more than one applicable provision of the TC applies to a single decision or event, the provisions in the order acknowledgement shall be deemed to be cross-referenced to the TC and all such provisions shall continue in full force and effect. The provisions of the TC will prevail in any event over any other representation, written or otherwise, made by Elsevier, whether oral or written, concerning the products and/or services. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s liability for fraudulent misrepresentation. Where Products are sold to the Client that contain third party software or such a sale may be subject to additional licence terms.

3. Execution and modification of the order Any modifications to the agreed product or service description, budget or schedule, as set out in the order acknowledgement, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional Services in connection with the performance of the TC, Elsevier shall charge the Client the same rates or fees as those charged by Elsevier to other third parties for similar Services and Products. Where applicable, Elsevier shall provide to Client’s VAT registration number or other value of tax exemption to Elsevier at the time of placing its order. If, under the laws of the territory in which Client is selling the Products, the Client is required to withhold any tax on the amount to be paid to Elsevier under the TC, then the Client shall deduct such tax from the amount to be paid to Elsevier and shall pay the amount so deducted to the appropriate taxing authority. The Client shall hold Elsevier harmless against all claims and liabilities for taxes, duties and imports levied upon the importation or sale of the Products and Services. Failure or delay byElsevier in demanding payment of any tax, or in refunding any tax to Elsevier, shall not be deemed to affect the obligation of the Client to pay any such tax. Failure or delay by Elsevier in demanding payment of any tax under the TC will not be construed as a waiver of any of its rights under the TC.

5. Payment Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payments shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in the currency invoiced. Time for payment shall be of the essence. The Client may request that the Client be provided with evidence of payment by Elsevier but Elsevier will not supply such evidence until the Client is in full compliance with this TC. If the Client does not pay the full amount due for such Products, Elsevier shall have the right, at any time, to charge or set off against any other amounts due from the Client to Elsevier. Failure or delay by Elsevier in demanding payment of any tax, or in refunding any tax to Elsevier, shall not be deemed to affect the obligation of the Client to pay any such tax.
