1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to all offers, proposals and agreements made by and between the Publisher and any third party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgment, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the "TC"). They supersede any previous supply terms and conditions. For the purposes of this TC, "Trade Credit" means trade credit, as opposed to cash or cash discount.

2. Payment

For all orders placed by the Client, all sums must be paid to Elsevier in accordance with the terms of the order acknowledgment, or as agreed otherwise in writing. Any monies or anything of value paid by the Client shall be credited to the accrued balance of the Client's account and追加的付款 will be made in accordance with the agreed payment terms. Any invoices or statements issued under this TC shall be payable net 30 days from the date of invoice. If any payments are not made within the agreed period (except for trade credit), Elsevier reserves the right to charge interest on the overdue amount at the rate of 15% per annum from the due date of the invoice until receipt of the full amount due.

3. Force majeure

If either party fails or neglects to perform any of its obligations set forth in this TC, then such party shall be relieved of those obligations to the extent it is prevented from doing so by the event of force majeure.

4. Liability and claims

No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or Elsevier's authorized representative. The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of the state in which the Products or Services are intended to be furnished.

5. Further agreement

The Client shall not be entitled to assign or transfer any of its rights under the TC or any agreement between the parties (the "AGreement") without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Any assignment or transfer made in violation of this provision shall be null and void. The Client acknowledges that the liability of Elsevier is to be limited in accordance with these terms and conditions and the Client acknowledges that a higher price would be payable for the Products or Services but for such limitations. The Client has entered into this TC in reliance on the agreed price and the agreed terms and conditions of the Agreement and shall be entitled to rescind the Agreement if any of the terms of the Agreement are not consistent with Elsevier's standards. In addition, Elsevier shall have the right, at any time, to remove, suspend or alter the Advertising Content, or to add new Advertising Content, to the extent that any such action is required to permit the use of the Advertising Content by Elsevier for the purposes of this TC; (ii) the use, reproduction, publication or display of the Advertising Content, or any part thereof, in whole or in part, in any manner or format, including the date of cancellation. No new external expenditure to be incurred by the Client shall be approved by Elsevier prior to the commencement of the Agreement.

6. Distribution

The Client shall be responsible for complying with all applicable laws, regulations and industry codes or any rights of any third parties including, but not limited to, infringement or dilution of trademark, copyright or any other intellectual property rights. Elsevier proposes to transfer to the Client all rights, ownership and title to the Advertising Content, whether now existing or hereafter created, in its digital or printed form, for use by the Client in accordance with the terms of this TC.

7. Audit

The Client shall allow Publisher's authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client's premises to verify Client's compliance with the TC. Where general terms and conditions are used in accordance with the Client's request, the Client shall be entitled to reject any order for reprints of material that has not been published. The Client has the right to cancel the order for that advertisement, if the alterations requested are unacceptable, unless such changes are made within the time specified in the order.

8. Guarantee and modification of the order

If no dates are so specified, delivery/performance will be within a reasonable time. The Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. Upon any violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement and may recover damages.

9. Privy terms and conditions

If any part of this TC, or any agreement between the parties (the "AGreement") is invalid or unenforceable as a whole or in part, the invalidity or unenforceability thereof, shall not invalidate the remaining parts of the Agreement. A Prohibited Payment shall be paid, offered, given, promised or authorized, directly or indirectly, of any kind to any commercial contact or Government Official for the purpose or intent to induce such person to receive or release any information or data to that person or to induce such person to perform any act to influence any Government official, including, without limitation, to obtain or retain any business or other advantage for personal gain or for that of Elsevier or Elsevier's affiliates (any such act, a "Prohibited Payment"). A Prohibited Payment includes any payment, grant, gift, loan, stock, share, or other form of consideration or benefit received or expected to be received by a Government Official, including, without limitation, state or local officials of any state or local government, or any employee or agent of any state or local government, in consideration for any official action or in exchange for anything of value.

10. Advertising & Reprints

Any order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until a written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or Elsevier's authorized representative. The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of the state in which the Products or Services are intended to be furnished.
