Radiography

Overview

Radiography promotes evidence-based practice by disseminating high quality clinical, scientific and educational research related to all aspects of diagnostic and therapeutic radiography. We publish research articles, systematic and narrative reviews, editorials and letters of international relevance that advance knowledge and encourage innovation within radiography. Radiography is essential reading for researchers and practitioners (diagnostic and therapeutic radiographers, medical radiation technologists, radiologic technologists) and for radiography educators and students. We aim to influence clinical practice by informing managers, leaders and policy makers working within or aligned to clinical imaging and radiation therapy services.

1. Applicability

These terms and conditions shall apply to offers, proposals, and make-up agreements entered into by Elsevier and any third party or its agent (the “Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (“the Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entirety of the agreement between the parties (the “TC”). These terms and conditions apply only to the Products and/or Services set out as set out on the Elsevier invoice. No other terms and conditions of business are proposed by the Client, these shall apply and the TC shall prevail. Any variation to the TC and any representations about the Products and Services shall have no effect unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorised signature of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s Liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.

Where Products are sold to customers, third party products or software such sale may be subject to additional terms.

2. Offer and acceptance/Descriptions

Each order for the Products and Services by the Client to Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or [Further] Elsevier delivers the Products or issues the invoice to the Client. Any changes in the TC shall be deemed to have been made in accordance with the terms of the TC. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Elsevier reserves the right to refuse any such assignment.

3. Execution and modification of the order

Any modifications to the order or the products or service description, budget or schedule, as set out in the order acknowledgement, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier delivers additional products or services, then the price of such additional products or services shall be agreed in writing by the parties.

4. Prices, taxes and currencies

Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing, the price for the products and services set out in Elsevier’s price list or invoice shall be exclusive of any taxes, import duties, or other levies imposed on the sale of the Products or Services. Except as otherwise agreed in writing by the Client, the Client shall not be entitled to return any or all of the Products or Services without Elsevier’s prior written consent. The Client shall not be entitled to substitute any other supplier for any of the Products or Services. Except as otherwise agreed in writing by the Client, any returns of Products or Services shall be subject to the relevant Elsevier company’s return policy and the Client shall not acquire any intellectual property rights in such products or services. Reprints cannot be returned once these have been printed.

5. Liability and claims

Subject to the limitations of liability and exclusion of indirect damages set out below, Elsevier shall not be liable for any loss or damage which may arise out of or relate to the Use of the Products or Services or any part thereof, except to the extent that any loss or damage has been caused directly by the negligence or wilful default of Elsevier. Elsevier’s liability is limited to the amount paid to Elsevier by the Client. The Client agrees that it is fully aware of the possibility of such a loss or damage and agrees to accept responsibility for any such loss or damage.

6. Distribution

The Client shall not engage in reproduction, rephrasing, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate or allow others to engage in these activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of the sale of the Products or Services, exercising full control and solely bearing any of loss or losses resulting from any uncollected amounts. Delay or failure in obtaining such payments will not affect Elsevier’s obligation to provide the Products under the TC.

7. Intellectual property

Copyright and other intellectual property rights in the Products and all other products and services of Elsevier shall remain with Elsevier and unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Client shall not be entitled to use the Products and Services or any part thereof except as specified in the TC. No part of the Elsevier proposals, publications, and other products and services may be reproduced, transmitted, or stored in any medium or format by any means electronic, mechanical, or otherwise without Elsevier’s prior written permission.

8. Liability and claims TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY RELEVANT LAWS (i) Elsevier shall not be liable for any of the following losses which may arise out of any breach of the TC. For any implied warranty, condition or other term, any representation or any duty of any kind imposed on Elsevier by operation of law (as any loss of profits or loss of anticipated future benefit); (ii) Regardless damages, costs or expenses which Elsevier may be required to pay to a third party; (iii) any loss of any sort that was foreseeable by the Client and Elsevier at the time the TC was entered into; or (iv) any loss of any kind that was not foreseeable by the Client and Elsevier at the time the TC was entered into.

9. Force majeure

The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products of Elsevier or its affiliates, nor shall it directly or indirectly facilitate or allow others to engage in these activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products by any third party. The Client is solely responsible for collecting from its customers amounts due in respect of the sale of the Products or Services, exercising full control and solely bearing any of loss or losses resulting from any uncollected amounts. Delay or failure in obtaining such payments will not affect Elsevier’s obligation to provide the Products under the TC.

10. Audit

The Client acknowledges that violations of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. Upon any breach or alleged breach of any of the foregoing representations and warranties, Elsevier may, in its discretion, terminate this Agreement immediately, and in any event, if such breaches are not cured within a reasonable period of time (if any) agreed in writing by Elsevier, Elsevier may, in its discretion, terminate this Agreement immediately.

11. Applicability

The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the court and tribunal of the country in which Elsevier is incorporated as the exclusive forum for any dispute arising out of or related to the TC.

In the event of any litigation, both parties agree to bear their own costs and expenses in respect of any action, proceedings, or arbitration brought under the TC.

In the event of any litigation, both parties agree to bear their own costs and expenses in respect of any action, proceedings, or arbitration brought under the TC.
