Overview

The American Journal of Pathology, official journal of the American Society for Investigative Pathology, published by Elsevier, Inc., seeks high-quality original research reports, reviews, and commentaries related to the molecular and cellular basis of disease. The editors will consider basic, translational, and clinical investigations that directly address mechanisms of pathogenesis or provide a foundation for future mechanistic inquiries. Examples of such foundational investigations include data mining, investigation of biomarkers, molecular pathology, and discovery research. Foundational studies that incorporate deep learning and artificial intelligence are also welcome. High priority is given to studies of human disease and relevant experimental models using molecular, cellular, and organismal approaches.

1. Applicability
These terms and conditions shall apply to all proposals, offers and agreements made up to and by Elsevier and any third party or its agent(s) (“the Client”) relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier (“the Products and/or Services”) and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties (the “TC”). They supersede any previous communications between the parties. The Client’s general terms and conditions of business are proposed by the Client, these shall apply and the TC shall prevail. Any variation to the TC and any representations about the Products and Services shall be made in writing and signed by, or on behalf of, an authorized representative of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s Liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.

2. Offer and acceptance

Orders for Products and Services by the Client from Elsevier shall be deemed to be an offer by the Client to purchase the Products and Services subject to the TC. No order placed by Elsevier shall be deemed accepted until written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier. Elsevier’s order acknowledgement describes the TC to which the Client is bound. The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Elsevier reserves the right at its sole discretion to refuse to supply the Products and Services to any third party or any person that it may consider unsuitable and the TC shall be subject to and governed by the applicable laws of the country of business. Otherwise, the order acknowledgement may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of Elsevier, the Client shall forward written notice of cancellation, any agreement and representation made by the Client shall be null and void. In the event of cancellation, the Client shall be responsible for paying any debts or obligations arising from the TC until such balance payment has been received. If the Client is in breach of any part or another order under the TC, Elsevier shall not be liable to Supply any of the Products or Services under the current order until all outstanding invoices are fully paid; Elsevier shall be entitled to apply any money received by the Client to the outstanding balances for the Products or Services.

3. General and modifications of the order

Any modifications to the terms and conditions of the order shall be effective only upon written agreement by both parties in the relevant order, including such things as format, production, design, size and/or additional features, title and the like. All drawings, descriptive matter, specifications and advertising material by Elsevier or any descriptions or illustrations contained in Elsevier’s catalogues or brochures are included or supplied for the sole purpose of giving an approximate idea of the products and Services described in them. They will form part of the TC. Publishing errors, including, but not limited to, typographical errors, having no significant effect on the editorial content or design characteristics of the Products and Services, cannot be considered a reason for rejecting delivery or, as the case may be, modifying the agreed price.

4. General and modifications of the order

The Client shall not engage in piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products of Elsevier, or sell or pass on by any illegal means or otherwise, except as specifically authorized by Elsevier. The Client shall comply with all relevant laws, ordinances, codes, regulations, and rules governing piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products of Elsevier or any third party, and shall take all reasonable steps to prevent the unauthorized use or reproduction of the Products or any other products of Elsevier. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier if it becomes aware of any piracy, reproduction, or plagiarism of the Products or any other products of Elsevier by any third party or any person that it may consider unsuitable and the TC shall be subject to and governed by the applicable laws of the country of business. Otherwise, the order acknowledgement may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of Elsevier, the Client shall forward written notice of cancellation, any agreement and representation made by the Client shall be null and void. In the event of cancellation, the Client shall be responsible for paying any debts or obligations arising from the TC until such balance payment has been received. If the Client is in breach of any part or another order under the TC, Elsevier shall not be liable to supply any of the Products or Services under the current order until all outstanding invoices are fully paid; Elsevier shall be entitled to apply any money received by the Client to the outstanding balances for the Products or Services.

5. Prices, taxes and currencies

Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing the prices for the Products and Services quoted in Elsevier’s current price list (whether in writing or on-line) shall be exclusive of any delivery charges, packaging, loading, freight, transport and insurance charges unless otherwise agreed in writing, and shall be exclusive of all excise duties or other levies imposed on the sale or import of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as appropriate. Where applicable, Elsevier shall provide to Elsevier’s VAT registration number or other applicable tax registration numbers. Payment does not include a payment of reasonable and bona fide expenditures, such as travel or lodging expenses, which are recoverable under the terms of the TC. Elsevier shall act in the name of, to the account of, and at the risk of the Client. Any dates specified by Elsevier for delivery of the Performance of the Services or Products are intended to be an estimate only and the delivery or performance shall not be made for the purpose of or in reliance on the dates specified.

6. Distribution

If the Client is in breach of any part or another order under the TC, Elsevier shall not be entitled to assign the TC, or any part of it, without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Elsevier shall be entitled to be indemnified and to receive compensation for any losses, costs, expenses, damages, or other claims, including reasonable legal fees, which it may suffer or incur in connection with any such breach.

7. Intellectual property

The Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. If, at the request of Elsevier, the Client shall forward written notice of cancellation, any agreement and representation made by the Client shall be null and void. In the event of cancellation, the Client shall be responsible for paying any debts or obligations arising from the TC until such balance payment has been received. If the Client is in breach of any part or another order under the TC, Elsevier shall not be liable to supply any of the Products or Services under the current order until all outstanding invoices are fully paid; Elsevier shall be entitled to apply any money received by the Client to the outstanding balances for the Products or Services.
