Annals of Oncology

Overview

Annals of Oncology, the journal of the European Society for Medical Oncology and the Japanese Society of Medical Oncology, provides rapid and efficient peer-review publications on innovative cancer treatments or translational work related to oncology and precision medicine. Main focuses of interest include: systemic anticancer therapy (with specific interest on molecular targeted agents and new immune therapies), randomized trials (including negatives ones), top-level guidelines, and new fields currently emerging as key components of personalized medicine, such as molecular pathology, bioinformatics, modern statistics, and biotechnologies. Radiotherapy, surgery and pediatrics manuscripts can be considered if they display a clear interaction with one of the fields above or are paradigm-shifting. With a large international editorial board of experts who are leaders in their fields, Annals of Oncology aims at delivering the best communication on the fast moving, and continually evolving, global oncology landscape.

ELSEVIER TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SUPPLY

1. Applicability
These terms and conditions shall apply to offers, proposals, agreements made in writing to Elsevier, and any third party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and any services provided by Elsevier on written request in respect of the delivery of the Products and/or Services. Any additional terms and conditions of the Client that are incompatible with these terms and conditions are hereby excluded unless agreed in writing by Elsevier. Any variation to the TC and any representations about the Products and Services shall have no effect unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorised signatory of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s Liability for fraudulent misrepresentation.

2. Offer and Acceptance
Offers and proposals from Elsevier shall be the exclusive property of Elsevier. The Client shall not, by reason only of the delivery of an offer or proposal from Elsevier, be deemed to have made any acceptance of any part of such proposal or offer. Except as otherwise agreed in writing, an offer or proposal from Elsevier shall not be deemed to be an acceptance of any part of such proposal or offer.

3. General and modification of the offer
Any modifications to the order acknowledgment, specification or design shall be subject to written agreement between the Client and Elsevier. Any such agreement, whether oral or written, shall be binding on the Client to the extent acknowledged, may result in an adjustment to the final price and/or delivery schedule at Elsevier’s discretion. If, at the request of the Client, Elsevier renders additional services to the Client, the Client shall be liable for all costs incurred by Elsevier in connection with the services rendered.

4. Prices, taxes and currency
Unless otherwise agreed by Elsevier in writing the prices for the Products and Services shall be in accordance with the Client’s previous quotation. All sums payable shall be exclusive of any handling, packing, loading, freight, transport and insurance charges unless otherwise agreed in writing, and shall not be allowed to any transport agent, duty or other levies imposed on the sale of the Products or Services by local or national authorities, which shall be charged by Elsevier as appropriate. Where applicable, Client shall provide Elsevier with VAT registration number or other proof of tax status as required by the tax authorities. Elsevier shall be entitled to charge the Client for the value added tax (VAT) and any surcharge thereof which may be levied by the tax authorities on the sale of the Products and Services.

5. Payment
Unless otherwise agreed in writing, payment shall be effected within thirty (30) days of the invoice date in current exchange. Invoices shall be rendered to the Client by Elsevier and the Client shall pay all amounts due on or before the due date of the invoice to Elsevier. Payment by the Client shall be made free of all charges, taxes and duties of any kind. Where the Client is indebted to Elsevier, Elsevier reserves the right to withhold supply of the Products or Services until such indebtedness has been cleared.

6. Distribution
Except as otherwise agreed in writing, Elsevier shall be entitled to apply any monies received by the Client, to clear any of the Client’s outstanding debts to Elsevier. Elsevier shall be entitled to deduct from the price of any invoice any monies which have been paid by the Client to Elsevier in error or in settlement of any other claim.

7. Intellectual property
The Client shall give Elsevier no less than thirty (30) days’ written notice of its intention to cancel or vary the order for Products or Services. Loss or damage to the Products during delivery shall be charged to the Client. Loss or damage in transit shall be charged to the Client if caused by a cause other than the negligence of the carrier. Elsevier shall not be liable for any loss or damage to the Products during transit unless such loss or damage is proved to arise from the negligence of the carrier of the Products.

8. Liability and claims
To the maximum extent permitted by law: (a) any loss of anticipated profits or expected future business; (b) damage to reputation or goodwill; (c) any indirect or consequential loss or damage of any kind; (d) any loss that was not reasonably foreseeable by the Client and Elsevier at the time this TC was entered into; and (e) any loss caused by the breach of any express or implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose. Nothing in this contract of agreement shall limit or exclude Elsevier’s liability for death or personal injury caused by its negligence, or for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or for any other matter which cannot by law be excluded or limited.

9. Force majeure
If by reason of labor dispute, strikes, inability to obtain labor or materials, fire or other action of the elements, the products described in the order acknowledgment cannot be delivered on time, at the rate or to any other time or at the price specified therein, Elsevier shall give written notice to the Client of the reason causing the delay. If, within thirty (30) days from the date of the said notice, the Client does not agree to accept delivery, Elsevier may cancel the order and refund to the Client the sum paid under the order. Elsevier shall not be held responsible for any loss, damage, or delay in delivery caused by such events.

10. Advertising & Reprints
All enquiries from third parties regarding the use of any aspect of the Products and Services or of any advertising content of the Products and Services for any third party purpose or product shall be subject to additional terms and conditions.

11. Audit
Client shall allow Publisher’s authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client’s premises (or any other premises) for the purpose of inspecting Client’s facilities, books and records to verify Client’s compliance with the TC. Client shall be liable for any costs incurred in connection with an inspection under this Section 11. Client shall give Elsevier a reasonable opportunity to carry out the inspection and shall provide Elsevier with all necessary information and assistance to enable Elsevier to comply with its obligations under this Section 11.

12. Compliance with laws
A Client shall not distribute or sell the Products or Services in a manner that is unlawful, that would infringe any patent, trademark, copyright, or any other intellectual property right, or that would violate any laws or regulations applicable to the Products or Services.

13. Assignment
Client shall not be entitled to assign the TC or any part of it without the prior written consent of Elsevier. Elsevier shall be entitled to assign the TC without the consent of the Client.

14. General
These terms and conditions shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the Country where Elsevier has its registered office or any other laws with which Elsevier is subject, as applicable. Client agrees that any dispute between the parties shall be resolved by arbitration in London, England, in accordance with the rules of the London International Arbitration Centre. The仲裁裁决是终局的，对各方具有约束力。仲裁裁决应以英文作出，并应以仲裁裁决为最终裁决。
