Canadian Journal of Cardiology

Overview

The Canadian Journal of Cardiology (CJC) is the official journal of the Canadian Cardiovascular Society. The CJC is a vehicle for the international dissemination of new knowledge in cardiology and cardiovascular science, particularly serving as the major venue for Canadian cardiovascular medicine. The CJC publishes original reports of clinical and basic research relevant to cardiovascular medicine, as well as editorials, review articles, and case reports. Papers on health outcomes, policy research, ethics, medical history, and political issues affecting practice, as well as letters to the editor, are also published. CJC is the repository for CCS guidelines and position papers.

1. Applicability
These terms and conditions shall apply to all proposals, offers, and orders made by Elsevier and by any third party or its agent ("the Client") relating to the products and/or services of Elsevier ("the Products and/or Services") and, along with the relevant Elsevier order acknowledgement, shall form the entire agreement between the parties for the TC. These terms and conditions supercede any prior terms and conditions or agreements between the parties for the sale of the Products and/or Services as set out in the Elsevier order acknowledgement. For the purposes and conditions of business are proposed by the Client, these shall apply and the TC shall prevail. Any variation to the TC and any representations about the Products and Services shall have no effect unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorised signature of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s Liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence of Elsevier.

2. Offer and acceptance
(a) No order shall be accepted by Elsevier unless it is in writing and signed by an authorised signature of Elsevier. The offer to sell the Products and Services from the Client shall be deemed to be an offer to purchase the Products and Services by the Client. If the order placed by the Client shall be deemed accepted until written acknowledgement of order is issued by Elsevier or [Finally] Elsevier deliver the Products or issue the invoice to the Client or commercial representatives of the Client.

3. Description of the TC
The formation, existence, construction, performance, validity and all aspects of the TC shall be governed by the law of the corporate domicile of the Elsevier company which is providing the Products or Services. The parties agree to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that same corporate domicile. The TC shall be the entire agreement between the Client and Elsevier, and shall supersede any prior terms and conditions or agreements between the parties for the sale of the Products or Services as set out in the Elsevier order acknowledgement. For the purposes and conditions of business are proposed by the Client, these shall apply and the TC shall prevail. Any variation to the TC and any representations about the Products and Services shall have no effect unless expressly agreed in writing and signed by an authorised signature of Elsevier. Nothing in the TC will exclude or limit Elsevier’s Liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence of Elsevier.

4. Warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to disclose all recipients of the Products or Services from Elsevier for its own account and use and not on behalf of any other person or entity. If the Client is an agent, it represents and warrants that it is purchasing the Products and Services from Elsevier for the Client as its own act and not on behalf of any other person or entity.

5. Payment
If the Client cancels an order either fully or partially, a cancellation fee may be charged. All cancellations must be made by written notice to Elsevier, and the Client shall allow Publisher’s authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client’s premises (or Client’s place of business) for the purpose of inspecting Client’s facilities, books and records to verify Client’s compliance with the TC.

6. Liability and claims
TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY ANY APPLICABLE LAW, ELSEVIER SHALL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY LOSS OF PROFIT OR ANY COSTS WHICH HAVE BEEN INCURRED OR COMMITTED UP TO AND INCLUDING THE DATE OF RECEIPT OF WRITTEN NOTICE OF CANCELLATION. The TC contains a full and complete statement of the Client’s entire liability towards Elsevier. In no event shall Elsevier be liable for any indirect or consequential loss or damage, including but not limited to any indirect or consequential loss or damage suffered as a result of a breach of the TC or any party’s failure to perform its obligations hereunder.

7. Force majeure
A Force Majeure Event shall be deemed to have occurred if the Client’s performance of any of its obligations hereunder is prevented by acts of nature, events beyond its control and for which it could not reasonably be expected to have foreseen or avoided, including but not limited to acts of God, war, terrorism, labor disputes, acts of any public or private governmental authority, strikes, lockouts, epidemics or plagues, civil commotions, insurrections, riots, embargoes, or restrictions. The Client acknowledges that a higher price would be payable for the Products or Services but for such limitations.

8. Compliance with laws
The Client shall at all times during the term strictly comply with all applicable laws, ordinances, codes, regulations, and generally prevailing custom and practice. The Client shall ensure that its servants, agents, and employees shall comply with all laws, regulations, and generally prevailing customs and practice. The Client acknowledges that violation of this representation and warranty will cause irreparable harm to Elsevier. Upon any violation of this representation and warranty, Elsevier shall be entitled to an immediate injunctive relief requiring Client to disclose all recipients of the Products and Services from Elsevier, including all of its actual recipients that have not been previously properly identified by Elsevier. Elsevier shall commercially reasonably efforts to comply with all of the provisions of the TC.

9. Distribution
The Client shall engage a professional reproduction or reproduction of the Products or other services of Elsevier, shall only do it as its own independent alternative to any party to engage in such activities. The Client shall promptly notify Elsevier in the event of any payment or service of reasonable and bona fide expenditures, such as travel or lodging expenses, which are substantially related to or are incurred in furtherance of the purpose for which the Products or Services were purchased.

10. Advertising & Reprints
If the Client wishes to distribute any materials in connection with any matter or business transacted by or on behalf of Elsevier.

11. Audit
The Client shall at all times allow Elsevier’s authorized representative at any reasonable time to have access to Client’s premises (or Client’s place of business) for the purpose of inspecting Client’s facilities, books and records to verify Client’s compliance with the TC.

12. Products
If the Client shall wish to cancel the Products or Services, the Client shall provide written notice to Elsevier at least sixty (60) days prior to the date of cancellation. The Client shall be responsible for any costs which have been incurred or committed up to and including the date of receipt of written notice of cancellation. The Client shall pay all amounts due under the TC without any deduction whether by way of set-off, counterclaim, discount, abatement or otherwise unless the Client has a valid court order requiring an equal amount to be paid to the Client. From the date of the written notice of the failure to pay in full, interest on the amount of such payment will be incurred at the rate of 1% per month or any lower rate to which any given jurisdiction or court in that state that is more than 1% per month.
